University Church worship services today are part of ASWWU Weekend of Worship coordinated by Spiritual Vice President Lindsey Haffner and her team of campus leaders. Students invited Terrance Taylor, a WWU graduate and pastor at Pasco Ephesus and Richland Seventh-day Adventist Churches, to speak for WWU vespers on Friday night as well as for University Church Sabbath services today. The weekend theme, “New Wine,” fits squarely within the University Church fall sermon series, “Savage: Hard Sayings of Jesus,” as pastor Taylor preaches from Luke 5:36-39 where Jesus speaks about new and old wine and wineskins. The theme song for the weekend will be featured in both worship services this morning and is printed in part on the cover of the bulletin.

Please join the pastoral staff in welcoming pastor Taylor, and thanking the ASWWU leadership team for their important part in planning the services.

- Brooke Ligertwood, Hillsong Worship

Our musicians include the ASWWU praise band assembled for this special weekend and led by Luke Irvine; and piano soloist Trevor Natiuk, a freshman music major from Battleground, WA. Trevor has been playing the piano for at least 12 years.

The organ music was written by Felix Mendelssohn (1809–1847). When he was twenty years old, Mendelssohn made the first of his ten visits to Britain where he became the toast of London. He was not the first German to do so. Like George Frederic Handel and Joseph Haydn before him, Mendelssohn completely conquered the English musical scene. As a result of his success, an English publisher requested in 1844 that he compose a set of voluntaries for organ. The next year, Mendelssohn published the eventual result, the wonderful six sonatas of Opus 65, published in 1845. Today we hear all of Sonata No.2 in C minor; the first half in the prelude, and the remainder in the postlude.

In the offertory, Trevor Natiuk presents a hymn arranged by his former piano teacher Colleen Adent. As you prepare to worship God, I invite you to meditate on the stirring words of this hymn, some of which are given here (the tune is found in our hymnal at No. 606):

Oh the deep, deep love of Jesus
Vast, unmeasured, boundless, free
Rolling as a mighty ocean
In its fullness over me

Underneath me, all around me
Is the current of Your love
Leading onward, leading homeward
To Your glorious rest above.

—Kraig Scott
