

With age comes wisdom... And wisdom means knowing how to take advantage of programs and services designed to assist you; it means knowing when to ask and where to go to find out about available economic support services.

Did you know that resources exist that will help you or a loved one navigate the sea of information and benefits that could increase monthly income? Your local community has services and programs to assist you. Find out about these services by visiting:

www.benefitscheckup.org/economicsecurity

For local, personal assistance contact:

- Lutheran Social Services of the Southwest - 520.312.5004
 - Pima County Public Libraries
 - Pima Council on Aging - 520.790.7262
 - Valley Assistance Services - 520.625.5966
- Serving: Green Valley, Sahuarita, Amado, Arivaca, Tubac and Tumacacori*

The Economic CheckUp Tool is designed to self-direct today's seniors, providing on-line information, support services and resource listings conveniently, effectively and securely so you may enjoy your life to the fullest.

SENIORSOLUTIONS

United Way of Tucson and Southern Arizona
UnitedWayTucson.org

Supported by the Senior Impact Coalition