

About Monk® Prayogshala® (Sec 8)

We are a not-for-profit academic research institution, registered under the Companies Act, 1956. We undertake projects covering the entire research life cycle from proposals to experimentation through to publishing and feedback integration. We follow rigorous processes in the development of our research proposals, while ensuring that we adhere to ethical considerations prescribed by international organisations.

Third Annual Seminar in the Social Sciences

This day-long seminar will showcase undergraduate, postgraduate, and doctoral research in the social sciences in India. It will engage with wide-ranging contemporary topics in the social sciences and provide a forum for students from various institutions to engage in exchange of academic knowledge.

The seminar aims to encourage high quality research as an important part of the undergraduate, postgraduate, and doctoral curricula in India. It will provide an opportunity to students from various disciplines within the social sciences to present and receive a critical review and useful comments on their research. Participants will also be able to engage with topics of contemporary relevance and rigorous methods employed in social sciences research. This seminar aims to establish an academic forum for students of the social sciences to showcase their work.

Themes: In doing away with an overarching theme, we wish to encourage submission of high-quality research in the fields of psychology, economics, sociology, anthropology, gender studies, and public policy. Papers presented at past editions of the Seminar have been multi-disciplinary in nature.

Call for Papers: Submission Guidelines and Details

We invite full text research papers and articles that adhere to editorial guidelines and word limits as mentioned below.
