3,748 students participated in over 115 field trips at the United States National Arboretum.

2,517 students engaged in five partner school gardens.

15 Green Ambassadors increased their knowledge of agriculture by 78%.

115 amazing volunteers gave over 1,155 hours to the garden.

428 pounds of produce donated to hunger relief organizations.

28 teachers from 11 schools attended the first annual Summer Institute for Garden Based Teaching.

1,000+ lbs of produce harvested.

75 tons of the city’s food waste diverted and made into compost for the garden.

39 community events hosted at the Youth Garden and partner school gardens.

21 weekend programs introduced for families and Arboretum visitors.

1,000+ lbs of produce harvested.

75 tons of the city’s food waste diverted and made into compost for the garden.

Washington Youth Garden is a program of Friends of the National Arboretum.

3501 New York Ave. NE, Washington DC 20002

www.washingtonyouthgarden.org