I TAMED THE SEASON'S CHAOS by putting my holiday planning in the hands of Miller's Professional Imaging.

With a collection of design templates and products that practically sell themselves, plus an easy-to-use single source for ordering, printing and shipping, I gave myself the perfect gift: time. (Now, if only I could say the same about the rest of my holiday to-do lists!)

TRUE HOLIDAY MAGIC can be yours this year — and it's never been easier.

A FEW TIPS FOR HOW I AVOID THE HOLIDAY FRENZY:

- * Because Miller's offers individual card samples, you can pick and choose the samples that fit your studio. I keep my favorites in a variety of papers and styles so my clients can touch and feel what they're ordering.
- * Miller's beautifully curated collection of cards, albums and design templates frees up my time, saving me hours of design work, especially in the busy holiday season.
- * I make Miller's my one-stop-shop. Quick turnaround and consistent quality mean I can go from designing to ordering within minutes. I can also login to one account to check on all of my client orders, anywhere in the process.
- * I use Miller's robust website (it's like a command center!) to dramatically streamline my workflow — from custom USB drives to studio sell sheets to drop shipping, they have the tools to make my workflow efficient.
- * I also frequent Miller's blog for inspiration. Their hard-working staff keeps a finger on the pulse of the industry.

I was thrilled when Miller's added some of my own hand-drawn designs to their gorgeous collection of templates. I created these designs to complement the look and feel of my studio, and am excited to share them with you.

Love, Jamie

Jamie's custom designs for the Signature Album, Flat Cards and Luxe Pop Card (all pictured), can be found in Miller's Design Market, store.millerslab.com.

I used hand lettering in these Holiday Flat Card templates to make sure they felt really special.
