BEAR CAN'T SLEEP!

It's winter, and the forest animals are hard at work, getting ready for the coming snow – all except Patch the Hare. Suddenly a huge, grumbly Bear appears and heads for an empty cave. Bear needs to sleep, but he can't. Oh, how he howls and growls! Patch is the only one who isn't afraid. He thinks Bear might be hungry, but then he learns what the real problem is. Patch comes up with a clever solution. What can it be?
