

“Beef, Is It What’s For Dinner?”

DRAWING AND PHOTO CONTEST

Submit a student-taken photo or student-done drawing that depicts a favorite beef meal or illustrates the beef industry here in Illinois and if selected

WIN a FREE field trip to Linden Hill Dairy Farm for your WHOLE class this spring!

Peoria County Farm Bureau Ag in the Classroom is hosting a DRAWING AND PHOTO CONTEST for students in our participating classrooms. Simply follow the rules below and submit photos by February 28th.

The contest winner will be announced in early March.

Photo Contest Rules –

- Contest to be run from January 1st – February 28th, 2018. No entries accepted after Feb. 28th.
- Photo or drawing MUST be done by a student in a classroom receiving monthly Ag in the Classroom visits.
- No fancy cameras necessary! The photo will be judged on creativity and answering the question, not on photo quality.
- Entries can be submitted digitally via email (agcoordinator.peoriacounty@gmail.com) or a hard copy can be mailed in to the Farm Bureau Office (1716 N. University St., Peoria, IL 61604).
- Be sure to label entries with school and classroom/teacher name!
- Only ONE entry per student!
- Questions? Contact Abbie Enlund 309-686-7070 or agcoordinator.peoriacounty@gmail.com.

Linden Hill Dairy Farm field trip details –

- Linden Hill Dairy Farm is located at 8412 W. Middle Rd, Peoria.
- Field trip MUST be scheduled for late April or early May 2018.
- Field trip is limited to NO MORE than 50 people (including all adult chaperones).
- All field trip costs and transportation costs will be covered.
- Field trip is all outside so scheduling may be weather dependent and students should dress for a day outside.
- Farm tour lasts about 2 hours.
- Students will learn in a hands-on way what it takes to get the milk in their glass, lanolin in their lotion and eggs on their breakfast table.

