

THRIVE!

with Dr. Beth

SPEAKING · COACHING · CONSULTING

Are you THRIVING, or just barely surviving? In Dr. Beth's THRIVE! Workshop she uses her 20-years of experience as a counselor and consultant, and the research from her degrees in Psychology, Clinical Social Work and a PhD in Mind-Body Medicine, to help you learn how to THRIVE! Rather than just 'getting by' day-to-day, ask yourself what you really want from your life and your relationships. Are you...

- feeling close and connected to those that you love?
- using your body as it is meant to be used?
- eating nutritious foods and spending time in nature?
- sleeping well at night so you feel rested and full of real energy to start your day?
- managing stress, anxiety and depression without medication?

Testimonials

"Beth can lead a group through an exercise and open up their awareness to the possibilities that have existed just beyond their reach. I love the way she merges her personal stories, with the exercises at hand to put everyone at ease. She is a master at breaking down the communication and cultural barriers that hold back any group from reaching its fullest potential. I highly recommend Beth and her work, and I eagerly look forward to the next opportunity to engage her magical services."

"It was so wonderful to have you with us at our retreats. We heard nothing but great comments and people were talking about how they were going to take their new "tools" home and use them regularly!! I can just see the Directors shaking away after a tough day. You made such a fabulous addition, I can't tell you how much it meant for me personally to have you there."
