Academic Studies Press offers three options for libraries who wish to place standing orders. Please read all three options carefully and select the best standing order method for your library.

Option A — Series Subscription:

Subscribe to any or all of the series below and you will automatically receive, at a 35% discount, all new volumes in your chosen series as they are published until you cancel your subscription. You will be billed as each book ships and may cancel at any time. If you receive a title that you feel does not fit your library's collection, simply ship the book back to Academic Studies Press in saleable condition within 30 days.

Option C — Create Your Own Standing Order:

If neither of the above options fit your library’s needs, you may create your own standing order. For example, you may wish to receive all titles by a particular author, editor, or translator (e.g. all titles with Mark Lipovetsky as a contributor) or all titles that address a particular subject (e.g. all titles that address gender studies or all literary biographies). If you receive a title that you feel does not fit your library’s collection, simply ship the book back to Academic Studies Press in saleable condition within 30 days. In as much detail as possible, please describe your unique standing order below.
