SCOPE AND PURPOSE

The Journal of Contemporary Antisemitism, which is one of the few journals exclusively dedicated to the analysis of antisemitism, focuses on the multiple and changing manifestations of antisemitism in the contemporary world. While our interest is in the post-Holocaust era, submissions may include relevant empirical studies dealing with the 19th or early 20th century. Specifically, our focus is on 21st century forms of antisemitism, including but not limited to, antisemitism in the Islamic world, in Europe, on the left and the right of the political spectra, secular antisemitism, antisemitism in the church, and anti-Zionism.

We invite scholars from all disciplines across the social sciences and humanities to submit: 1) original research articles reporting qualitative or quantitative research; 2) literature reviews; 3) conceptual or theoretical articles; 4) commentaries; 5) book reviews.

Overseen by an international team of editors, this rigorously peer-reviewed journal aims to provide a forum in which scholars from diverse political and intellectual backgrounds can analyze, debate, and formulate effective responses to the ever-evolving and insidious threat of antisemitism.

SUBMITTING YOUR ARTICLE MANUSCRIPT

- JCA generally publishes articles of 5000–7000 words of text, including notes. Longer submissions are possible, please contact the journal in such a case.
- Articles must be submitted as electronic file attachments in Microsoft Word format.
- As articles are peer-reviewed anonymously, your article should be submitted without any identifying information (your name, institutional affiliation, or references to previous publications (e.g., “see my chapter…”)). Only the title should appear on the title page.
- All articles that are accepted must be revised to conform to the most recent edition of the Chicago Manual of Style prior to publication.
- JCA will not consider articles currently under review elsewhere or previously published work.
- To submit an article, or ask a question about the submission process, please send a message to jca@academicstudiespress.com
SUBMITTING YOUR BOOK REVIEW MANUSCRIPT

- JCA generally publishes book reviews of approximately 2500 words of text. Do NOT include endnotes or footnotes.
- Reviews must be submitted as electronic file attachments in Microsoft Word format.
- All reviews that are accepted must be revised to conform to the most recent edition of the Chicago Manual of Style prior to publication, with the following exceptions:
  - Quotations from the book being reviewed should be followed by the page number in brackets. For example: Jane Smith notes in the fourth chapter that “Boston is the largest city in Massachusetts.” (321)
  - In lieu of footnotes or endnotes, internal mentions of other publications should be formatted parenthetically as follows: (see for example, Hannah Johnson, Blood Libel: The Ritual Murder Accusation at the Limit of Jewish History, [University of Michigan Press, 2012])
- Include your name and institution at the end of the review.

To submit a review, or ask a question about the submission process, please send a message to jca@academicstudiespress.com

FORMATTING

- JCA uses footnotes for articles. Footnotes should always be inserted using MS Word’s “insert footnote” function. Please do NOT use MS Word’s “insert citation” or “manage sources” functions.
- All notes should use Arabic numbers. Roman numerals should not be used for notes in the manuscript.
- All text should be Times New Roman font, 12 point.
- The first line of a paragraph (except when it starts a new section) should be indented to the .5-inch mark. Indent using the ruler at the top of the page, rather than tab or space.
- Do not include an extra line or space between paragraphs.
- The entire manuscript should be double-spaced.
- Block quotations should be indented evenly—that is, the entire quote is indented to the .5-inch mark using the ruler, rather than only the first line. There should be an extra space before and after the block quotation.
- Make certain that sub-headings within the article are marked clearly.
- Quotations should be indicated with double, and not single, quotation marks.
- Spell “antisemitism” and “antisemite” without a hyphen, except when the original spelling in a quote or in a publication title contains a hyphen.
- Dates should be formatted in month/day/year style, e.g.: April 6, 2015
PREPARING YOUR ACCEPTED MANUSCRIPT FOR SUBMISSION

• FOR ARTICLES ONLY: Along with your revised manuscript that conforms to the style and formatting guidelines below, please include a revised title page that includes your name, institutional affiliation, email address, and mailing address; a 150-word abstract of the article; a 75-word biographical sketch.

• JCA follows the most recent edition of the Chicago Manual of Style (currently, the seventeenth edition). All references should follow Chicago Style’s “Notes and Bibliography” documentation system, with the exception of book reviews (see above). Please consult the Manual for any specific questions (in most cases, you should have free access to the online Manual through your library).

TRANSLITERATION

• JCA asks that you use the Encyclopedia Judaica system for transliterating Hebrew.

• In transliteration, a straight apostrophe is sometimes used to represent Hebrew Ayin or Aleph. Please make certain that the same symbol is used consistently whenever Ayin/Aleph appear.

• Above all, please make sure that a single transliteration system is used uniformly in your manuscript.

PERMISSIONS

• Permissions, for print and digital content, including images, are to be acquired by the author. JCA is happy to provide any necessary documentation required to arrange for permissions. If you need to quote extensively from other works or wish to include other copyrighted material, you should seek permission (in writing) from the copyright holder. In most cases this will be the publisher of the original work; the author or originator of the original material should be asked for permission as well. Authors are responsible for taking care of reproduction fees, if any.

IMAGES

• Line drawings (e.g. diagrams, maps) should be supplied on clear white paper, with lines and/or hatchings drawn in black ink. Never use a pencil or colored ink.

• Photographs can be submitted as electronic files, slides or glossy prints. All photographs should be clearly cross-referenced to the List of Illustrations (see below) by a number written on each slide frame, or a number written on the back of each print. Indicate horizontal or vertical orientation, and when necessary, crops, enlargement of details, etc. Info should be indicated on a photocopy accompanying the original.

• When supplied as electronic files, line drawings should have a minimum resolution of 1200 dpi [dots per inch]. Photographs should have a minimum resolution of 300 dpi. The file format should be .TIF(F), .JPG or .EPS; a printout should always be supplied.

• Include a list of captions to illustrations, diagrams, maps etc. Numbers should indicate clearly to which photograph each caption belongs. Credit lines and permissions should be included in the captions.

• Tables and figures should be submitted with the manuscript as separate files.
COPY EDITING AND PROOFREADING

• Once you receive your copyedited manuscript, you will have ten days to review and return your article. You will also have ten days to review and return your proofs.
• If you have any questions about submitting or revising any part of your manuscript, please reach out to jca@academicstudiespress.com

OPEN ACCESS

Academic Studies Press is committed to helping researchers publish, distribute, and advertise their work in digital format for a broad readership. Articles published in Open Access undergo rigorous peer-review and appear alongside other articles in the print edition of the journal.

Academic Studies Press publishes articles Open Access under the terms of Creative Commons Licenses (https://creativecommons.org/licenses/). Our standard license, the CC BY-NC, allows readers to excerpt and share your work for non-commercial purposes (such as a lecture or blog-post) so long as you are properly cited. Other licenses forbid any derivatives from being made of your work (e.g., CC BY-NC-ND), while others allow substantive changes and commercial reuse (e.g., CC BY). We are happy to help you select the license that is most appropriate for your article and meets the requirements of your institution or funding agency.

To learn more about Open Access costs and the institutions and agencies that fund Open Access publishing, please visit us at http://www.academicstudiespress.com/about-asp-open/