“Classics in Judaica” is a series from Academic Studies Press focusing on preserving timeless classic works on Jewish faith and culture. Well-known writers both modern and historical are once again accessible through these affordable volumes. All volumes have been personally selected by the current leading scholars of our time for their lasting significance in the field of Jewish Studies. Those interested in Judaism and Jewish culture in general will find this series to be invaluable both in the classroom and for personal use.

ABOUT ACADEMIC STUDIES PRESS

ASP is an independent scholarly publisher devoted to advancing knowledge and understanding in the humanities and social sciences, with an emphasis on Jewish Studies and Slavic Studies. Through our outstanding, opinion-leading authors and series editors, we continuously strive to enhance understanding through our monographs and critical companions, improve the accessibility of classic works through our translations, and inspire dialogue through our scholarly commentaries. We champion innovative ideas and new, creative interpretations.

For information on how to submit a proposal, please visit: www.academicstudiespress.com/for-authors/