About me

Hello, I'm Rick Hyde, an illustrator, animator and designer based in Manchester, England.

As a lover of 1960s pop culture, a fan of psychedelia and a dedicated yogi, my art explores everything from the inner conscience to the outer cosmos. Combining a love of bright colours and bold geometric forms, I draw influence from both contemporary flat and mid-century styles.

Whether illustrating or meditating, you'll always find me searching. Seeking the frequency that will help guide my next project.

If you think that could be with you, tune in, drop out, and get in touch.
