

EJH Bio

Eran and his wife Julie, their three children, Caleb, Emma, and Ellie served as the Student Ministries Pastor at GT Church, Reading, PA for over 15 years. During their tenure, the student ministry grew from roughly 30 students to over 400. Eran's passionate, creative and relevant preaching has distinguished him as a prophetic voice and communicator. He speaks at various churches, retreats, conventions and conferences. Eran's passion is to inspire both students and parents in their faith. In 2016 Eran & Julie founded Lead the Generation, a non-profit ministry focusing on providing both practical training and inspirational teaching to youth pastors, volunteer youth leaders and student leaders. Eran also coaches and consults with youth pastors and churches on a variety of topics.
