ADIRONDACK EXPRESSIONS ART CAMP

Art is the universal language of imagination and freedom. Discover your voice at the Adirondack Expressions Art Camp. At this weeklong sleepover camp, young adults with learning differences will learn from renowned local and guest artists and create take-home crafts, keepsakes and works of art, as well as learn independent living skills and build social skills. There are classes here for budding artists of all interests and skill levels.

The Adirondack Expressions Art Camp offers a beautiful, fun and safe environment for participants to immerse themselves in a variety of art forms. The camp will host an exhibition at the end of each session so that parents, friends and family can come and see the fruits of their week’s labor. Inspire a lifelong passion for the arts by taking advantage of Adirondack Expressions. If you are looking for enriching activities to fill your child’s summer break, then Adirondack Expressions Camp is just what you – and they – need.
