Get to know
Lucile Packard Children’s Hospital Stanford

Our hospital began with one mom’s vision. Lucile Salter Packard, our generous founder and visionary for children’s health, believed strongly in caring for both the body and soul of every child. That commitment to nurturing care continues to guide us today.

- Thanks to our donors, almost 24,000 patients whose families could not afford the full cost of treatment received care at Lucile Packard Children’s Hospital Stanford last year.
- Our Stanford University School of Medicine is the 2nd highest ranked medical school in America.
- Our network provides care for nearly 500,000 patient visits a year.
- No family is ever turned away due to their financial circumstances.
- Our $1.1 billion hospital expansion, opening in 2017, adds 521,000 sq. ft. of building space, 149 patient beds, and 6 new surgical suites.
- Our Transplant Center is #1 in the nation for pediatric transplant volume with top patient outcomes.
- 100% of gifts donated to the hospital directly support care for thousands of kids and expectant moms each year.
- 100% of gifts donated to the hospital directly support care for thousands of kids and expectant moms each year.
- Our network provides access to Stanford Children’s Health specialty care or well care within 10 miles of most Bay Area family homes.
- In 2015, our patients came from 45 states in the U.S., and 32 countries around the world.
- Last year, our Johnson Pregnancy and Newborn Center delivered more than 4,200 babies.

People
Medical Staff: 1,270
Employees: 3,663
Volunteers: 900
Auxiliary Members: 1,010

Our hospital has 302 beds.

In 2015, our patients came from 45 states in the U.S., and 32 countries around the world.

No family is ever turned away due to their financial circumstances.

Our hospital began with one mom’s vision. Lucile Salter Packard, our generous founder and visionary for children’s health, believed strongly in caring for both the body and soul of every child. That commitment to nurturing care continues to guide us today.