I first became excited about the Denver Language School because of the success its students have in target language acquisition. Then I learned about the cognitive benefits of learning two languages simultaneously such as critical thinking, time management, problem-solving, and creativity. I realized then that DLS would be impactful not only for the students – but long-term for Denver and the communities in which our students will live as adults.

ADVANCED DEVELOPMENT
Learning two or more languages from a young age develops greater critical thinking, problem-solving, vocabulary, and listening skills.

WORLDLY UNDERSTANDING
DLS students learn specifics around culture and communication strategies that empower them to collaborate with native speakers.

INCREASED CONFIDENCE
The remarkable task of language learning teaches children that progress requires focused effort and perseverance. This gives them the confidence to take healthy risks.

LOCALLY GROWN GLOBAL CITIZENS
The Proven Benefits of the Denver Language School

CULTURAL EMPATHY
Our students are kind and compassionate. They are part of a significantly diverse school that celebrates and appreciates many cultures.

UNLIMITED POSSIBILITIES
As global citizens, DLS students are uniquely poised to be the thought leaders, activists, and innovators of the future, bridging cultures to create positive change.

FULL-LANGUAGE IMMERSION
The most effective way to acquire a second language

Will my child learn English?
YES. Children in full-language immersion programs not only learn English, but studies show that a majority surpass their peers in performance on standardized testing.

Is language immersion right for my child?
Language immersion is good for ALL children! We have students from many different ethnic, social, educational, and language backgrounds.

Full-immersion students develop strong abstract thinking skills through learning a second language at a young age. (Zelasko and Antunez, 2000)

DLS STEM
At DLS, we believe what students can DO with what they know is as important as what they know. Our STEM programming provides students with inquiry-based educational experiences, bridging the gap between the concrete and the abstract. It's all about curiosity, creativity, and critical-thinking!
