MASSACHUSETTS INSTITUTE of TECHNOLOGY

The Constitution of the Interfraternity Council of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology

February 16, 2017

Article I: Name of Organization

The name of this organization shall be the Interfraternity Council of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Article II: Terms and Abbreviations

Section 1: MIT

Abbreviation for the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Section 2: IFC

Abbreviation for the Interfraternity Council of MIT.

Section 3: Petitioning Group

A group that is seeking admission to the IFC.

Section 4: Fraternity

A group that is affiliated with the IFC.

Section 5: Probationary Member

A member of the IFC that is in their initial period.

Section 6: Associate Member

A member of the IFC that has completed their initial period but is not yet a full member.

Section 7: Full Member

A member of the IFC that has been granted full membership.

Section 8: IFC Executive Board

The Board consisting of the officers of the IFC.

Section 9: IFC Presidents' Council

The primary legislative body of the IFC.

Section 10: Living Group

Any group established at MIT that provides housing to MIT students.

Section 11: FSILG

Abbreviation for Fraternities, Sororities, and Independent Living Groups.

Section 12: New Member

A new member of an IFC member organization.

Article III: Preamble

Fraternities provide MIT students with non-dormitory living options, a sense of community, and many other tangible and non-tangible benefits. The IFC is herein created to provide for the longevity of its constituent groups by acting as a collective voice for Fraternities, facilitating the survival and improvement of each Fraternity as well as the Fraternity system as a whole, and promoting positive Fraternity relations with MIT, the communities of Boston, Cambridge, and Brookline, and within the Fraternities themselves.

Article IV: Purpose of Organization

Section 1:

The purpose of this organization shall be:

- a. To uphold the Preamble.
- b. To serve as the student government that manages the Fraternity system.
- c. To provide accountability mechanisms for the Fraternity community.
- d. To assist in providing a total educational experience for the IFC community by emphasizing and acting as a resource to support community participation and responsibility.
- e. To serve as the voice of the Fraternity community in discussions with the administration of MIT.

Article V: Membership

Section 1: Establishment of Membership

Members of the IFC shall be the MIT Fraternities established according to the procedures outlined in Article V, §3 and in the FSILG Recognition Policy.

- a. Any member of the IFC shall retain its membership status upon ratification of this Constitution, if it chooses.

Section 2: Student Status

All members of each IFC member organization shall be MIT students. A member organization may restrict its membership further, but may not allow non-MIT students to become members.

- a. A member organization shall not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sexual orientation, religion, disability, age, genetic information, veteran status, ancestry, or national or ethnic origin.
- b. A student that is an initiated member of a Fraternity for at least 12 academic weeks may not join another Fraternity if the student's organization is expelled from the IFC due to a conduct-related incident. Exemptions may be decided at the discretion of the IFC Executive Board.
- c. An organization may not allow its members to simultaneously be a part of two Fraternities that reside at different addresses.

- d. Any student may not simultaneously be an initiated member of a Sorority and a Fraternity.

Section 3: Procedure for Recognition of Petitioning Groups

- a. In order to petition for recognition on campus, a Petitioning Group shall submit all necessary documents by the deadlines stated in the FSILG Recognition Policy.
- i. If the organization is seeking recolonization, the Petitioning Group must submit a letter to the IFC Executive Board stating why the organization should be allowed back. It should also address what practices and policies will be in place to avoid behavior that led to the chapter's closure.
- b. Once all petitioning documents have been submitted, the Petitioning Group may request for the Presidents' Council to hold a vote to be recognized as a member and begin formal activities, a minimum of one year after the submission of necessary documents.
- c. The Presidents' Council may, by a three-quarters vote of all present and voting members, at a meeting of the Presidents' Council, admit a Petitioning Group as a Probationary Member of the IFC.
- i. If the Petitioning Group gains admittance to the IFC as a Probationary Member, it will enter an initial period set by the Presidents' Council, not to be less than one year.
- ii. Should the Petitioning Group fail to receive recognition from the MIT Vice President of Student Life or designee, its status as a Probationary Member will be revoked.
- d. Probationary Members shall be non-voting members of the IFC and shall pay one-half of the dues paid by Full and Associate Members.
- e. Probationary Members shall follow all rules and regulations of the IFC outlined by this Constitution and any supporting documents in Article X.
- i. Probationary Members shall not be able to host a social event unless the event's purpose is stated and a formal safety plan is approved by the Associate Dean and Director of the FSILG Office and the IFC Executive Board two weeks before the event will be held.
- f. Probationary Members shall be required to submit a report to the Presidents' Council at the beginning of each academic term containing the following information:
- i. Financial Statement: a statement of the financial situation of the group.

- ii. Officers: a list of all current officers of the group.
 - iii. Membership: a list of all members of the group.
 - iv. Activities: a list and description of all activities it has held and is planning to hold during the upcoming academic term.
- g. The Presidents' Council may, by a majority vote of all present and voting members, at a meeting of the Presidents' Council, expel a Probationary Member from the IFC.
- h. If the Presidents' Council denies admittance as a Probationary Member to a Petitioning Group, the Petitioning Group may not petition for membership again for at least a year, and must act in accordance with the timelines set within the FSILG Recognition Policy.
- (a) The Presidents' Council may subsequently change this waiting period to any period of time greater than or equal to six months and less than one year by a three-quarters vote of all present and voting members at any meeting following the denied application. The Petitioning Group must still act in accordance with the timelines set within the FSILG Recognition Policy.
- i. After a Probationary Member has finished its initial period, the Presidents' Council may, by a majority vote of all present and voting members, at a meeting of the Presidents' Council, admit the Probationary Member to the IFC as an Associate Member.
- i. If the Probationary Member gains recognition from the IFC as an Associate Member, it shall retain this status for one academic term.
 - ii. Associate Members shall be voting members of the IFC and shall pay full dues.
 - iii. Associate Members shall follow all rules and regulations of the IFC outlined by this Constitution and any supporting documents in Article X.
 - iv. If the Presidents' Council denies admittance as an Associate Member, the Probationary Member may not petition for Associate Member status for at least one academic term.
- j. After an Associate Member has finished its associate period, the Presidents' Council may, by a majority vote of all present and voting members, at a meeting of the Presidents' Council, grant full membership to the IFC.
- i. Full Members shall be voting members of the IFC and shall pay full dues.
 - ii. Full Members shall follow all rules and regulations of the IFC outlined by this Constitution and any supporting documents in Article X.
 - iii. If the Presidents' Council denies admittance as a Full Member, the organization loses its Associate Member status and reverts to Probationary membership for at least one academic term.

Section 4: Loss of Membership and Expulsion

- a. If a member of the IFC loses recognition from MIT or their national organization, it automatically loses its membership in the IFC.
- b. Violation of this Constitution or other documents as given in Article X, or failure to pay dues, may result in expulsion from the IFC.
- c. The Judicial Committee may effect the expulsion of a member from the IFC.
- d. The Presidents' Council may, by a three-fourths vote of all present and voting members, at a meeting of the Presidents' Council, expel a Full Member from the IFC.
 - i. Motions to the Presidents' Council to expel a member of the IFC must be submitted to the Presidents' Council at least two weeks in advance of the meeting at which the vote to expel will occur.
- e. Any group that loses its membership in the IFC must petition the IFC as a new group to gain re-admittance to the IFC.

Article VI: Presidents' Council

Section 1: Membership

- a. All members of the IFC Executive Board shall serve as ex-officio, non-voting members of the Presidents' Council.

The operating costs of the IFC shall be divided equally among members of the IFC.

- a. Probationary Members shall pay one-half the dues paid by Full and Associate Members.

Section 2: Budget Submission

The Executive Assistant & Treasurer shall submit the annual budget to the Presidents' Council for approval by the second meeting of the Presidents' Council after entering office.

Section 3: Payment of Dues

- a. Dues must be paid within thirty days of the approval of the IFC budget by the Presidents' Council.
- b. Interest shall accrue on any overdue balance at an annual rate of 18%, compounded daily. Interest may be waived by a majority vote of the IFC Executive Board.
- c. Failure to pay dues within 60 days of the approval of the IFC budget shall result in loss of voting rights until the full balance owed, including principal and interest, is remitted.
- d. Failure to pay dues within 120 days of the approval of the IFC budget shall result in loss of ability to register events and participate in formal recruitment until the full balance owed, including principal and interest, is remitted.

- e. The Executive Assistant & Treasurer shall, at each meeting of the IFC Executive Board and the Presidents' Council, identify those members that are overdue on payment of dues and those members that have lost voting rights as a result of nonpayment of dues.

Article X: Documents

Section 1: Constitution

- a. The Constitution shall lay out the foundation of the IFC, its organization, structure, and membership.
- b. The Presidents' Council may, by a three-fourths vote of all present and voting members, at a meeting of the Presidents' Council, amend or ratify the Constitution.

Section 2: Bylaws of the Judicial Committee

- a. The Bylaws of the Judicial Committee shall set forth the policies, guidelines, organization, and membership of the Judicial Committee.
- b. The Presidents' Council may, by a two-thirds vote of all present and voting members, at a meeting of the Presidents' Council, amend or ratify the Bylaws of the Judicial Committee

Section 3: Risk Management Policy

- a. The Risk Management Policy shall set forth the guiding principles for risk management, legal liability, and social responsibility for IFC member organizations. The Judicial Committee shall enforce the provisions of the Risk Management Policy.
- b. The Presidents' Council may, by a two-thirds vote of all present and voting members, at a meeting of the Presidents' Council, amend or ratify the Risk Management Policy.

Section 4: Recruitment Rules

- a. The Recruitment Rules shall set forth the rules, guidelines, and policies to which all IFC member organizations must adhere during periods of formal recruitment. The Judicial Committee shall enforce the provisions of the Recruitment Rules.
- b. The Recruitment Committee may, by a three-quarters vote of all present and voting members, at a meeting of the Recruitment Committee, amend or ratify the Recruitment Rules.

Section 5: FSILG Social Events Policy

- a. The FSILG Social Events Policy shall help Fraternities register, run, and ensure the safety of Fraternity social events. The Judicial Committee shall enforce the provisions of the FSILG Social Events Policy.
- b. The Presidents' Council may, by a two-thirds majority of all present and voting members, at a meeting of the Presidents' Council, propose amendments to or ratify the FSILG Social Events Policy.
- c. Wherever applicable, the FSILG Social Events Policy shall supersede any IFC Risk Management Policy without affecting the rest of the document as a whole.

Section 6: Amendments

The Presidents' Council may, by a two-thirds vote of all present and voting members, at a meeting of the Presidents' Council, enact other permanent and semi-permanent rules and regulations.

Section 7: Constitutional Authority

None of the documents listed in Article X, §2-6 may modify or supersede any provision of the Constitution.

Section 8: Submission of Amendments

Amendments and revisions to any of the documents in Article X must be submitted to the Presidents' Council in written form at least two weeks in advance of the meeting of the Presidents' Council at which the vote on the amendments or revisions will occur.

- a. Amendments to the Recruitment Rules must be submitted to the Recruitment Committee in addition to the Presidents' Council following the same guidelines.
- b. The amendment process may be expedited for changes that are purely logistical in nature (i.e. not policy changes). The Presidents' Council shall determine the appropriate time, which shall be no less than one day and no more than two weeks, required to review such amendments.

Section 9: Conflicts

If, at any time, the policies and guidelines set forth by any document in Article X are in conflict with MIT policies, or federal, state, or local law, the relevant section of the document shall be nullified without affecting the rest of the document. The document should be updated to reflect these changes.
