In accordance with the FTC guide lines concerning use of endorsements, testimonials, reviews and feedback in advertising or any of our pages, let us make you aware of the following circumstances:

The endorsements, testimonials, reviews and "feedback" displayed are, given verbatim except for correction of grammatical or typing errors. Some have been shortened meaning; not the whole message received by the testimony writer/reviewer is displayed, when it seemed lengthy or not the whole text seemed relevant for the general public.

These are endorsements, testimonials, reviews and feedbacks actually received via email, video or audio. They are individual experiences by persons who have used our health products and services, in some way or other. They are individual results and we do not claim that they are typical results that advertisers will generally achieve.

FULL TESTIMONIAL AND TYPICAL RESULTS DISCLOSURE STATEMENT:

Vimanna Nutrition and its partners/affiliates - wants you to be fully informed when you purchase from us, our endorsers, or any third party we may link to or recommend on any of our sites. We take pride in our products, services, and recommendations, and want our visitors to get the maximum positive results from their purchases, whether this is in direct profit, education, or enjoyment. In this light we believe it's important for you to understand the following facts before making a purchase from any of our sites, or any site we may refer you to through third party links.

FINANCIAL RELATIONSHIPS WITH ENDORSERS:

If you are referred to our site from a third party with or without a tracking link, they may receive a commission on any products or services you purchase. Because of this potential financial relationship, you should not rely solely on their endorsement in making a purchase decision, and must exercise due diligence in evaluating our products and services using information obtained beyond their specific endorsements and the sales site in particular.

GENERALLY EXPECTED RESULTS FROM OUR PRODUCTS & SERVICES:

Although our products and services are intended to be fully implemented, and we work hard to ensure it's easy to do so, the typical user generally does not utilize the product correctly (in dosage, length of time or use or consistency). Therefore, positive results may not be achieved. Stating the typical results is not easy due to various factors - such as age, hormonal variants and genetics. Some products need to be used at higher dosages and/or longer periods of time to achieve the desired results. Other products are very subjective in experience (such as those having to do with sexual desire, mood, anxiety or depression) and people suffer from it to varying degrees. We would never claim nor intend that any of our products or services can diagnose, treat, cure or prevent any disease.

GENERALLY EXPECTED RESULTS FOR OUR AFFILIATES:

Most people who participate in affiliate programs remain inactive and do nothing after signing up, thus never making a single sale. Of the few who do something, the vast majority do not succeed in making sales. Therefore, profiting from our affiliate program should be considered the exception rather than the norm. Some affiliates may lose time, money, and effort in their promotional activities for our programs.
