- Po-Ca-Hon-Tas opened in May 1891 and is considered the first “Triangle Show”. The music was student-composed and the book was student-adapted.
- Several other early shows were not written for Triangle, including Katherine, Who's Who, Snowball, A Tiger Lily and Lend Me Five Shillings (1896-97, not represented here).
- A Woodland Wedding was the first show to tour past Trenton and New Brunswick.
- Three Triangle Shows re-ran: Po-Ca-Hon-Tas, Hon. Julius Caesar (twice), and King of Pomeru.

- Triangle alumni include Booth Tarkington 1893, F. Scott Fitzgerald 1917, Josh Logan '31, Jimmy Stewart '32, José Ferrer '33, Doug McGrath '80, Brooke Shields '87, Ellie Kemper '02.
- Coeducation came to Triangle in 1968-69 and to Princeton a year later.
- From 1970 to 1998, Triangle shows opened in the spring and went on tour the following winter. Before and since, they opened in the fall and toured in the same school year.

Triangle shows that aren't Triangle Shows

- Here are just a few examples of non-"mainstage" Triangle shows, generally produced in the spring until 1970 and after 1999, and in the fall from 1971 to 1998.
- Triangle welcomes each year's incoming Princeton class with "Frosh Week" revues of past and present Triangle hits.
- Triangle performs sketches and songs at various university and community events, in between major tour performances, and at other times throughout the year.
