The Alabar HERO Series

A new partnership between Harness Racing Victoria's Harness Education & Re-training Opportunities (HERO) Program and the Victorian Agricultural Shows Limited will deliver unprecedented showing opportunities for retired Standardbred racehorses.

For the first time, VAS will host one dedicated Standardbred showcase in 2015, culminating with a rich line-up to be held in conjunction with the Victorian Saddle Horse Championships. The format for the competition mirrors the very successful 'Throughout Of The Truck Shows and provides qualifying heats at Agricultural Shows throughout the State, leading into a $2,000 final at Bendigo in January 2015. It is open to all retired Standardbred horses bred for racing, however, there is an emphasis to have been officially retired, either in recent interstate entries or as well as retired.

HERO Program Manager Tony McElders commented VAS is pleased to support the Standardbreds in their life after racing, and describe the new series as an exciting opportunity. "To be able to present retired Standardbreds in such an auspicious stage is a really exciting" she said. "So many dedicated people have supported the occupation of the Standardbred as a lifetime pursuit and performance horse and VAS is pleased to support them through the introduction of the HERO Series to give them a new lease of life."

The Alabar HERO Series has been made possible by the financial support of Harness Racing Victoria and the State Government via the Victorian Racing Industry Fund. An association leading Standardbred breeding operation, Alabar Bloodstock, has secured racing rights, ownership of the farm, former trainer Alan Galloway and his staff are providing support, organisation and assistance which provide an outlet for pleasure Standardbreds, mainly Alabar the former HERO Series association to be set up.

There has never been a better time to show a retired Standardbred in Victoria

WARNING UNDER THE FAIR TRADING ACT 1999

Under the Australian Consumer Law (Victoria), several statutory guarantees apply to the supply of certain goods and services. These guarantees mean that the supplier named on this form is required to ensure that the recreational services it supplies to you—

- are rendered with due care and skill; and
- are reasonably fit for any purpose which you, either expressly or by implication, make known to the supplier; and
- might reasonably be expected to achieve any result you have made known to the supplier.

Under section 32N of the Fair Trading Act 1999, the supplier is entitled to ask you to agree that these statutory guarantees do not apply to you. If you sign this form, you will be agreeing that your rights to sue the supplier under the Fair Trading Act 1999 if you are killed or injured because the services provided were not in accordance with these guarantees, are excluded, restricted or modified in the way set out in this form.

NOTE: The change to your rights, as set out in this form, does not apply if your death or injury is due to gross negligence on the supplier's part. Gross Negligence is defined in the Fair Trading (Recreational Services) Regulations 2004.
