

Everyone is someone's somebody.

Miracle Messages are short video messages from homeless people to their long-lost loved ones, recorded and delivered by volunteers. To date, 40% of reunions have lead to stable housing. Miracle Messages has been featured in the New York Times, NPR, and NowThis, whose video reached 22M views and 350K shares. Our goal is to reunite 1 million people by 2021. Join the movement.
