

FounderMade Privacy Policy

FounderMade is concerned about the privacy of its users and is committed to providing a secure environment for the free flow of ideas.

If we change our privacy policy, we will post those changes on this page so that you are always aware of what information we collect, how we use it, and under what circumstances we disclose it.

No software or hardware techniques are employed to capture a visitor's e-mail address without their knowledge. Visitors need not register or give any personal identification to read the basic sections of this site.

How We Handle The Data We Collect

Where visitors choose to provide FounderMade with their contact information in order to receive event information or brand information, we may use the information for marketing and promotional purposes by FounderMade and companies we believe may be of interest to you. You may manage your e-mail subscriptions at any time, including removing yourself from our e-mail lists.

How We Use Cookies

"Cookies" are pieces of information that a Website transfers to an individual's hard drive for record-keeping purposes. We do not use cookies to track how non-registered members use our site. We employ a simple count system that tells us how many visits the site receives in a given period, but no identities or individually identifiable information is gathered by this process.
