Title: Wrong Jungle

Key Verse | James 1:8-17

Read James 1:9-11

What kind of perspective is James hoping we gain from these words? It's easy to think of wealth and celebrity in a detached way - but if you're totally honest, in what ways has the culture affected the way you think about personal worth and value? In what ways does the upside-down nature of God's kingdom challenge our cultural understanding of value, worth and importance?

Read James 1:12

Think about the most difficult thing you have ever faced. What did you learn about yourself? What did you learn about God? How can this perspective help prepare you for whatever might come next in your life?

Read James 1: 13-15

If you are being honest, what would you identify as some possibly "unchecked" desires in your own life today? What are some ways you can seek perspective in this area?
