

Foreword

We have travelled the length and breadth of this vast country, from the Yarra Valley to McLaren Vale, Margaret River to the Mornington Peninsula and everywhere in between, to bring you a list that's as Australian as Uluru.

You won't find Chianti or Beaujolais here, Burgundy or Champagne. But you might find sangiovese and gamay, pinot noir and sparkling wine. The rule is simple: anything goes, it just needs to have been grown and bottled somewhere in our island home.

Our focus is on small, independent producers, family-run businesses and boutique wineries. We like wines with a story, whether from personal experience having visited the winery, or if the winemaker has popped in to visit us here at Muse.

We have an extensive selection of wines available by the glass and each month we invite you to join us on a 'flight' to journey through the regions and varieties of Australia. Can't decide? Choose a 'Mystery Wine' and we'll decide for you. Perhaps it's something we're already pouring, or maybe we'll crack open something not usually available by the glass. It's a mystery!

And it's not just wine. We have more than 10 craft beers available by the bottle (and can), and a fine selection of ciders. Our spirits offering is also exclusively Australian so, alas, no Cosmopolitans or other cocktails that require international spirits. But we can make you a Martini or a Mojito, a Negroni or Tom Collins. How about a Colonel Hencastle? 'Moonshine' whisky, freshly squeezed Granny Smith apples, mint and a dash of soda.

If you don't feel like alcohol we have a range of soft drink options. From fresh lemon, lime and handcrafted Australian bitters, to artisanal cordials from Mudjee, NSW; Larsen & Thompson loose leaf teas and locally roasted Red Brick Espresso coffee.

This is a list is for those who aren't afraid to try something new; it's a list of discovery and maybe reconnecting with old friends. It's a considered list which we hope you enjoy browsing as much as we enjoy putting together.

Wine Flight $20

Sauvignon Blanc

Join us on a journey over a glass and a half of something different and delicious! Our flight is three 75ml pours of wine that showcase either a region, a varietal and sometimes maybe both. So sit back and relax as we take you on a First Class journey across Australia!

Sauvignon blanc is synonymous with New Zealand's Marlborough region and the Loire Valley in central France. It's a polarising varietal with countless numbers fervently declaring that the nettly, herbaceous characteristics of New Zealand's primary white wine export are the world's best, and equal numbers arguing that only poofers and tarts drink Sauv Blanc. They're all wrong, of course.

Originally from Bordeaux this green-skinned grape varies in flavour profile according to climate: from cool-climate grassy notes to sickly sweet passionfruit in warmer regions. It buds late and ripens early so it thrives in a sunny climate that's not too hot. Climate change is wreaking havoc on the varietal and it's not uncommon these days for grapes to be harvested earlier than traditionally picked; leave it too late and it becomes dull and flat. It is best suited to drink young and pairs extremely well with cheese.

In Australia the wine makers of Margaret River in WA will often blend semillon into their sauvignon blanc, but perhaps it is the cool climate of South Australia's Adelaide Hills that Australian sauvignon blanc is most famous. So obviously we're going to avoid both of those areas instead looking at Tumbarumba just outside of Canberra, down Red Hill way in Victoria's Mornington Peninsula, and finally an extraordinarily interesting whole bunch pressed 100% sauv blanc from Canberra's own Eden Road winery.

Sparkling Wine & Pink

Something a little bit special

2016 NINO by Mount Majura naturally sparkling Pinot Gris, Canberra District $40

NINO - Nothing In Nothing Out - is a pet nat or petillant naturel or naturally sparkling wine made from the juice of Pinot Gris grapes. The grapes have been pressed and left to ferment with their own yeasts. Ferment is then finished in bottle and Robert's your mother's brother - that's it. It's a refreshing, zippy, zesty wine and $25 from each bottle sold will be donated to Youth Care Canberra, a little charity that looks after children who have fallen through the cracks. Drinking does make a difference!
