

OUR DRINKS

Welcome to Muse: where stories, good food and great wine come together!

Our drinks list celebrates the work of independent Australian producers - from Kangaroo Island malbec to sparkling Mudgee merlot and everything in between. We've travelled the country, meeting the people and exploring the regions that have made Australia such a fascinating place for those who like a good drink.

We're very pleased to be able to bring to Canberra an eclectic selection of just some of the remarkable wines made by the excellent men and women winemakers from across Australia. Some wineries and most varietals you will have heard of, but there may be some that you have not.

Whether you're here for just a glass, for our changing monthly wine flight, or you're settling in for a bottle or two and a catch up with friends, don't be afraid to explore, leap into the void and ask any question about any of our wines. We're here to help!

WINE FLIGHT - MARCH 2018

CLUB MED

This month we're celebrating the last of the warm weather with a tour of lesser-known Mediterranean white varieties, from some of the country's most innovative winemakers. With its warm climate and relatively low rainfall, Australia is particularly well suited to growing Mediterranean wines. Sangiovese, Tempranillo and Pinot Grigio have found an appreciative home here and, in recent years, there has been an explosion in plantings of weird and wonderful grapes from Portugal, Spain and Italy.

We begin with Arinto - a varietal that's common across most of Portugal but virtually unknown in Australia. The Portuguese usually blend it into their fresh and easy-drinking vinho verde, but Ricca Terra Farms in South Australia's Riverland has used it on its own to create a bright and vivacious wine. It's fruity and fresh, bursting with crisp acidity. Begin your explorative journey with thoughts of cobbled streets and crushed lemons under the summer sun.

Moving east to Campania in Southern Italy we find the noble Greco, rumoured to have arrived from Greece in the mists of time, but now the basis of one of Italy's most renowned DOCG wines – Greco di Tufo. Chalmers Wines has been one of the pioneers of alternative varieties in Australia (many of the most interesting vines grown around the country were propagated in their Heathcote nursery). Their Greco is an Australian first and a satisfying combination of peaches, spice and steely minerality that lingers for a beguilingly long time on the palate.

Our Mediterranean tour ends on the island of Santorini, birthplace of Assyrtiko - an ascetic variety that is as pared back as the rugged volcanic landscape in which it thrives. Australia's first Assyrtiko plantings were made by Jim Barry in 2012 in his Lodge Hill Vineyard in the Clare Valley. Inspired by the world famous riesling grapes of his home region, the resulting wine has flowers, flint and fine acidity to boot.
