To this web page:

If you are already a member login and renew your membership. For new users of esportsdesk click e Sign Up to create your account with eSportsDesk and Alberta Weightlifting Association. You will be asked for the common stuff in the account set up such as birthday, phone number, email etc. Now when ever things change you can sign in and change your account info. This also means we will not be asking for the same information year after year for membership nor for competition registrations as this will be on file in the system.

Once you have created an account and log in you will go to a screen similar to this:

From here you can go into Memberships to purchase your current seasons membership.

The screenshot shows the website for the Alberta Weightlifting Association. The page title is "Alberta Weightlifting Association" with the email "margo@albertaweightlifting.com". There are four main buttons: "Add Family Member", "Register Now", "Memberships", and "Help & Support". An orange arrow points to the "Memberships" button. Below these buttons, there are sections for "Memberships Purchased" and "Memberships Available". The "Memberships Available" section is expanded to show a table of membership options.
