

JYI Author Contract

I, _____, recognize that by submitting a manuscript for review at the Journal of Young Investigators (JYI), I agree to fully abide by the Copyright Policies of JYI. In particular, I certify that unless clearly and properly cited, none of the information in this manuscript has been published in whole or in part in another scientific book, journal, or other publication intended for broad distribution. I understand that should my manuscript be accepted for publishing with JYI, I agree to transfer the Right of First Publication to JYI; no retraction requests for accepted manuscripts will be granted unless evidence of invalid data in the paper is provided. I understand that I retain full copyright for the paper and choose the following licensing agreement to govern its distribution: (please check only one)

CC BY: This license lets others distribute, remix, tweak, and build upon your work, even commercially, as long as they credit you for the original creation. This is the most accommodating of licenses offered. Recommended for maximum dissemination and use of licensed materials.

CC BY-SA: This license lets others remix, tweak, and build upon your work even for commercial purposes, as long as they credit you and license their new creations under the identical terms. This license is often compared to “copyleft” free and open source software licenses. All new works based on yours will carry the same license, so any derivatives will also allow commercial use. This is the license used by Wikipedia, and is recommended for materials that would benefit from incorporating content from Wikipedia and similarly licensed projects.

CC BY-ND: This license allows for redistribution, commercial and non-commercial, as long as it is passed along unchanged and in whole, with credit to you.

CC BY-NC: This license lets others remix, tweak, and build upon your work non-commercially, and although their new works must also acknowledge you and be non-commercial, they don’t have to license their derivative works on the same terms.

CC BY-NC-SA: This license lets others remix, tweak, and build upon your work non-commercially, as long as they credit you and license their new creations under the identical terms.

CC BY-NC-ND: This license is the most restrictive of our six main licenses, only allowing others to download your works and share them with others as long as they credit you, but they can’t change them in any way or use them commercially.

The license you choose for your manuscript is irrevocable. Please submit this document along with your manuscript through the JYI Submissions Portal as a Supplementary Document. No manuscripts will be accepted for peer-review without this agreement.
