Kee Ramsorrun

Writer/Director/Editor

PROFILE

I'm an award-winning filmmaker and I've been at it for over ten years; promos, adverts, narrative shorts. I specialise in short-form content, using my creativity and technical know-how to develop beautiful pieces. And, I'm really nice.

OBJECTIVE

My professional aim is to make good films for good people. I strive to constantly challenge and improve myself. My personal aim is to be a good husband, brother, son and friend. And to compete in a mixed martial arts cage fight.
