

IAG, QFS, & POINT72 INTERNAL STOCK PITCH COMPETITION

New York University's Investment Analysis Group and Quantitative Finance Society will be hosting a stock pitch competition with Point72 Asset Management culminating on Wednesday, February 22nd, 2017. Teams of members from both QFS and IAG will compete internally, and the finalists will present their winning pitches to a board of Point72 judges. The 2nd- year students on the finalist teams will be offered an opportunity to interview for Point72's Sophomore Summit, a one-day externship program for highly-qualified candidates interested in investing and the Point72 Academy.

A Clearly-Defined Path to the Top

Preliminary Round

1. Register to compete with a team of 3-4, which must include at least one member from both IAG and QFS, by Tuesday, January 31st, 11:59pm ET.
2. You will receive the data set and guidelines for the stock pitch via email on Wednesday, February 1st, 9:00am ET.
3. Submit your final pitch to IAG & QFS by Tuesday, February 14th, 11:59pm ET.
4. Ten competing teams will be notified on Wednesday, February 15th if they are invited to present to preliminary judges (non-competing members of IAG & QFS) on Thursday, February 16th.
5. After the presentations and deliberation by the preliminary judges, the five finalist teams will be announced by Sunday, February 19th, 5:00pm ET.

Final Round

Finalist teams will pitch their investment ideas in front of a panel of judges from Point72 and IAG & QFS members on Wednesday, February 22nd, beginning at 6:30pm ET. Point72 judges may include Academy leadership, Academy recruitment professionals, investment professionals, and NYU alumni. Presentations are to be approximately 12 minutes long (5-8 minutes to pitch, 4 minutes for Q&A).

All 2nd- year students on finalist teams will be given the opportunity to interview for Point72's Sophomore Summit in the weeks following the stock pitch competition.
