Summary of The GrowHaus:
Joining The GrowHaus is an exciting opportunity to join a fast-paced organization leading Denver’s food justice movement. The GrowHaus’ budget has doubled over the past three years, and we are continuing to maximize philanthropic contributions and earned revenue to drive sustained impact and cultivate community-led food justice!

Our fresh food access programs reach nearly every pocket of Denver, and we are serving over 5,000 people every week. Food access is our starting point, but we are passionate about disrupting the root causes of food insecurity by providing jobs, leadership development, and health and wellness programming to the communities we serve.

Summary of Senior Development Manager Role:
Are you a self-starter who is ready to run towards new ideas to get the job done? Are you a natural people person who isn’t afraid to strike up a conversation? Are you a strategic thinker who is ready to turn vision into action? If you answered yes, this role may be right for you!

The Senior Development Manager is a crucial part of the Development and Communications team, primarily focused on strengthening The GrowHaus’ individual giving program. This person will use their creativity to plan year-round campaigns and stewardship activities to increase individual giving and ensure our community of supporters feels appreciated and understands the impact of their donations. We’re particularly excited for this person to grow and strengthen The GrowHaus’ monthly giving program, También, which includes 500 members! The Senior Development Manager position is for someone who exudes tenacity in reaching fundraising goals, is able to adapt based on emerging trends, and is excited to grow their fundraising skills.

Responsibilities:

➢ Strategize and manage campaigns and stewardship activities throughout the year to welcome new También members and inspire existing members to increase their monthly pledges.

➢ Create and implement a stewardship strategy to increase donor retention and giving levels for individuals giving $5,000 or less annually.
➢ Regularly provide meaningful organizational and programmatic updates to También members and other individual donors through newsletters, phone calls, letters, and other creative methods.

➢ In collaboration with the Director of Development and Communications Coordinator, create and execute an effective Colorado Gives Day campaign

➢ Manage The GrowHaus’ donor database, Kindful.

➢ Support the planning of Harvest Week, our annual four-night fundraising event hosted in partnership with EatDenver, and other stewardship events throughout the year.

➢ Regularly meet and develop trusting relationships with individual donors and También members.

➢ Craft compelling proposals and reports for private foundations and corporate sponsors.
