

ReClaim™

manage, claim & grow revenue for your premium online content

Millions of videos are created, uploaded, and shared every minute. If the content is yours, don't let it capture audiences and earn revenue without you. ReClaim partners with content owners, MCNs and major brands to manage and optimize channels and premium online video with accuracy and scale.

For every official brand video uploaded to video sharing platforms, there are 100+ user-uploaded versions, often generating 10x the views. Content owners today earn just a fraction of the total ad revenue generated on their original content.

ReClaim™ has the technology and services to efficiently manage and claim your original content as well as grow channel awareness worldwide.

Product Advantages

End-to-end channel management

Our dedicated team provides expert copyright review, helps manage your channel and develops strategies to grow viewership, subscribers and maximize organic reach.

Organize and prioritize

Advanced claiming technology lists thousands of copyrighted files at once, allowing you to understand the value of each video and streamline the claims process.

Captivate and grow

Sophisticated identification platform provides in-depth analysis on how content is consumed, helping you better connect with audiences, promote your brand and grow your channel.

Optimize your reach

ReClaim finds and matches more videos faster on all video sharing sites, maximizing your potential to increase reach and revenue on original content during its peak viewing cycle.
