

2018 Wesak Gathering in Estes Park

OK, so it won't be quite that big, and then, something magical can happen when a group of any size puts its minds, hearts, and lives together in service to the One Life.

Wesak is a time of great opportunity. Regularly, on the second full moon after the Spring Equinox, groups the world over, large and small, synchronize their service at an exact day and time. The invocative aspect of that service is to touch into and become the appeal of the prisoners of the planet for release into the warmth, understanding, and inclusiveness of living love. The evocative aspect is the release of the abundant waters of life into our thirsty planet.

Estes Park, Colorado, USA is said to be a center that can be useful in the radiation of that life. Here is a quote from the Headquarters Lessons speaking of the Center of Synthesis:

"Visualize from this point within the heart of the Center, this point which you see as the etheric light body of the Christ, visualize from this point the radiant aura of that etheric light body whose periphery constitutes the periphery of the Center itself, and from that periphery, the radiation of the Grace of the Christ through the substantial forces of humanity to the imprisoned Soul of humanity."

We hope you can join us in Estes Park for this world service.

Date and Time: Travel day is the 26th of April, possibly to meet in the late afternoon or early evening greet each other. April 27, 28 and 29 are full days starting at 9:30 am.

The exact time of the full moon is on Sunday at 6:58 pm Mountain Time. We will meet in the morning of the 30th and end before lunch.

Place: Estes Park, Colorado, USA; probably at Henry Guy's cabin, but that could change depending on the response.

Nature of the Gathering: Service. Meditation. Dialogue. Hiking. Fellowship. Embodiment.
