

Grimm Cellars

These are two gorgeous Sauvignon Blancs from proprietor Rick Grimm and winemaker Paul Lato. Grimm planted his ranch in Happy Canyon just a few years ago, but in just that short time this site has proven to be incredibly well suited to Sauvignon Blanc. The vineyard is planted with a high percentage of the Musqué clone, which gives the wines much of their distinctive signatures. Farming is done following organic and biodynamic practices, while the wines are aged in a combination of stainless steel, neutral oak and cement. Stylistically, the wines have a phenolic feel and intensity that is incredibly distinctive.

From Santa Barbara: On the Road (Aug 2015) by Antonio Galloni

	Vintage	(Hover for Commentary)		Tasting		Author	Drinking Window	Release Price	Review Date
		Producer	Name	Notes	Score
2014	Grimm Cellars	Sauvignon Blanc Grimm's Bluff	The 2014 Sauvignon Blanc Grimm's Bluff is stellar. Melon, pear and fig open up in the glass. Drink this distinctly Graves-inflected Sauvignon to drink over the next handful of years. -- Antonio Galloni	93	Antonio Galloni	2015 - 2019	$36.00	Aug 2015
2014	Grimm Cellars	Sauvignon Blanc Reserve Grimm's Bluff	The 2014 Sauvignon Blanc Reserve Grimm's Bluff is proprietor 's barrel selection. While bigger, richer and more concentrated, the Reserve is not meaningfully better or more complex than the straight Sauvignon Blanc. Apricot pit, peach, chamomile and smoke add the final shades of nuance in this super-distinctive Sauvignon Blanc. -- Antonio Galloni	93	Antonio Galloni	2016 - 2020	$48.00	Aug 2015	