California Coastal Commission's

COASTAL CLEANUP DAY

Mugu Rock Beach (South End) 9am - 12pm

Join the state's largest annual volunteer event & help protect our coasts!
Mugu Rock Beach is adjacent to Mugu Lagoon and is home to the Chumash Village of Muwu. The Lagoon is an Area of Special Biological Significance and is an integral part of the Pacific Flyway, supporting 18 species of fish and 60,000 shorebirds each spring, including five Endangered Species.
Bring: Hat, close-toed shoes, sunscreen (supplies are provided).

Please arrive early to sign a waiver (Under 18 needs a guardian signature).
