FIRST PERSON SINGULAR: I.M. PEI
A film by Peter Rosen Productions
Wednesday, 12 February 1900hrs
BFI Screening Room
21 Stephen Street, London W1T 1LN

From Hong Kong to Paris, through the remote mountains of Japan, to New York, Boston, Washington D.C. and Dallas, celebrated architect I.M. Pei leads viewers through The Bank of China, The Louvre, The Miho Museum and other sites where his famed structures have been erected. Never before has I.M. Pei spoken so thoroughly about his early years in China and his schooling at MIT & Harvard, his philosophy and methods of creating architecture, and his experiences with clients such as Jacqueline Kennedy and Francois Mitterand.
