

Let's be honest! Sometimes being Jesus' disciple means being hard of hearing, slow in understanding, and even worse at following Him in our daily lives. If that's you, don't worry. You're in good company. Jesus' first 12 Disciples were the same! Of all the Gospels, Mark portrays the disciples at their dumbest. Which means there's hope for me. And if you're like me, that means there's hope for you too!

His name might be on a lot of churches, but St. Mark wasn't one of Jesus' 12 Disciples. So, who was he? What qualified him to write one of the Gospels? Throughout this summer and fall, our Gospel lessons each Sunday will almost exclusively be from the Gospel of Mark. Find out who Mark is. Find out what sets Mark's portrayal of Jesus apart, come hear better, understand more, and follow with zeal! Come be Jesus' disciple. I hope to see you all Sunday, June 17th!
