

Elevate Diversity Forum

Want to learn from diverse role models who are the best and brightest in their field?

The Bank of America Elevate Diversity Forum provides undergraduate Black, African American, Hispanic, Latino, Alaskan Native and American Indian freshmen and sophomore students the opportunity to participate in a one and a half day immersion experience to kick start your career.

Hosted by our businesses professionals, you will have the opportunity to hear first-hand of their experience while learning about the unique culture and history of the Bank. You will have the opportunity to meet with senior leaders and industry experts, in addition to attending workshops and learning how the recruiting process works.

Program details

Dates: Wednesday, May 10 – Thursday, May 11, 2017

Location: Bank of America Office, New York

Application Deadline: Sunday, March 19 by 11:59 p.m. EST

To apply:

Complete an online application via our website at go.bofa.com/Elevate17 and submit:

- An updated resume
- A 250-word personal statement indicating what you feel has been your greatest accomplishment

Travel and hotel accommodation will be provided for students selected to attend.

Life's better when we're connected®

Bank of America and its affiliates consider for employment and hire qualified candidates without regard to race, religious creed, religion, color, sex, sexual orientation, genetic information, gender, gender identity, gender expression, age, national origin, ancestry, citizenship, protected veteran or disability status or any factor prohibited by law, and as such affirms in policy and practice to support and promote the concept of equal employment opportunity and affirmative action, in accordance with all applicable federal, state, provincial and municipal laws. The company also prohibits discrimination on other bases such as medical condition, marital status or any other factor that is irrelevant to the performance of our teammates. Candidates must possess authorization to work in the United States, as it is not the practice of Bank of America to sponsor individuals for work visas.

Emerging Women

Are you interested in expanding your network and accelerating your career?

The Bank of America Emerging Women's Program is a one and a half day insight program for freshmen and sophomore women interested in our business. This event provides a unique opportunity to meet business professionals first-hand, learn about the financial services industry, and start preparing for the application process.

As a participant you will learn about the unique culture and vast history of Bank of America, while taking part in one on one interactions with our senior leaders, and participating in skill-building workshops.

Students of all majors are encouraged to apply and learn more about our exciting industry.

Program details

Dates: Monday, May 8- Tuesday, May 9, 2017

Location: Bank of America Office, New York

Application Deadline: Sunday, March 19 by 11:59 p.m. EST

To apply:

Complete an online application via our website at go.bofa.com/Emerging17 and submit:

- An updated resume
- A 250-word personal statement indicating what you feel has been your greatest accomplishment

Travel and hotel accommodation will be provided for students selected to attend.

Life's better when we're connected®

Bank of America and its affiliates consider for employment and hire qualified candidates without regard to race, religious creed, religion, color, sex, sexual orientation, genetic information, gender, gender identity, gender expression, age, national origin, ancestry, citizenship, protected veteran or disability status or any factor prohibited by law, and as such affirms in policy and practice to support and promote the concept of equal employment opportunity and affirmative action, in accordance with all applicable federal, state, provincial and municipal laws. The company also prohibits discrimination on other bases such as medical condition, marital status or any other factor that is irrelevant to the performance of our teammates. Candidates must possess authorization to work in the United States, as it is not the practice of Bank of America to sponsor individuals for work visas.

Ignite with STEM Leadership Academy

Do you want a career that will engage your skills from day one and encourage your passion for continued learning?

The Bank of America Ignite with STEM Leadership Academy is a one and a half day enrichment experience focused on developing technical and leadership skills. This is a targeted program for freshmen and sophomore students with an interest in financial services, who are majoring in science, technology, engineering and mathematics.

You will have the opportunity to take part in dynamic case studies, practice your presentation skills, and enhance your business acumen through interactions with business professionals and industry experts. It will also offer you a unique insight into our business while experiencing our culture and learning about our vast history.

Program details

Dates: Tuesday, May 9 – Wednesday, May 10, 2017

Location: Bank of America Office, New York

Application Deadline: Sunday, March 19 by 11:59 p.m. EST

To apply:

Complete an online application via our website at <http://go.bofa.com/igniteSTEM17>, and submit:

- An updated resume
- A 250-word personal statement indicating what you feel has been your greatest accomplishment

Travel and hotel accommodation will be provided for students selected to attend.

Life's better when we're connected®