

Frequently Asked Questions

What is a THRIVE group?

THRIVE groups are made up of a small gathering of people (8-12) who regularly meet with the goal of experiencing spiritual growth. THRIVE groups focus their time on studying God's Word, praying together and investing in one another's lives. Some groups also take opportunities to serve together.

Why should I join a THRIVE group?

You should join a THRIVE group because all of us need to grow spiritually. In a THRIVE group, you will have the opportunity to meet and grow with others. You will be led by a mature believer through the Scriptures so that you grow to know God's Word more and apply it to your life. It will also provide a comfortable location to meet friends who will encourage you in your to walk with Christ.

How do I join an OBC THRIVE groups?

- You can sign up at church when our groups launch in the fall or the spring.
- You can email: Hickman12@comcast.net
