

Role and Function

The Personnel Administration Division is the central agency in the public service responsible for the implementation of policies on Human Resource Management. It functions as the Secretariat to the three Service Commissions established under the provisions of Chapter VIII of the Constitution of Barbados.

