ARTICLE I

PURPOSE

It is the purpose of this Agreement to promote and insure harmonious relations, cooperation and understanding between the Employer and the employees covered hereby, to insure true collective bargaining, and to establish standards of wages, hours, working conditions, and other conditions of employment.

ARTICLE II

UNION RECOGNITION, UNION MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. UNION RECOGNITION

(A) The Employer hereby recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent of the employees covered by this Agreement for the purpose of collective bargaining with respect to rates of pay, wages, and hours of employment.

(B) The term "employee" as used herein shall include all Para-Professional/Special Education Aides personnel. Substitute, summer, co-op, DSS, or other similar donated services by temporary workers shall be excluded from terms and conditions of this Agreement.

SECTION 2. UNION MEMBERSHIP

All employees employed in the bargaining unit, or who become employees in the bargaining unit, who are not already members of the Union, shall within thirty (30) calendar days of the effective date of this Agreement, or within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of hire by the Employer, whichever is later, become members or in the alternative, may pay to the Union each month a service fee in an amount equal to the regular monthly Union membership dues uniformly required of employees of the Employer who are members.

An employee who tenders or authorizes the deduction of membership dues (or service fees) uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or obtaining membership in the Union, shall be deemed to meet the conditions of this Article so long as the employee is not more than sixty (60) calendar days in arrears of payment of such dues (or fees).

If any provision of this Article is invalid under Federal or State law, said provision shall be modified to comply with the requirements of said Federal or State law.

The Union agrees that it will make membership in the Union available to all employees covered by this Agreement on the same terms and conditions as are generally applicable to other members of the Union.

The Employer agrees that, upon hiring any new employees who are covered by this Agreement, the Employer shall send a letter advising the Union of the name, date of hiring and Social Security number of the new employee, hourly rate and number of scheduled hours per day.

ARTICLE III NON-DISCRIMINATION

The Employer and the Union both recognize their responsibilities under Federal, State and local laws pertaining to fair employment practices, as well as the moral principles involved in the area of Civil Rights. Accordingly, both parties reaffirm by the Agreement the commitment not to discriminate against any person or persons because of race, creed, color, religion, sex, age, marital status, or national origin.

ARTICLE IV VISITATION

Upon request by the Union and the presentation of proper credentials to the Superintendent or the business office, officers or accredited representatives of the Union shall be admitted into the Employer's premises during working hours for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not this Agreement is being observed by the parties or for assisting in the adjusting of grievances, provided, that said observation shall not disrupt orderly operations or inhibit employees from doing their work.

ARTICLE V STEWARDS

(A) The Employees shall be represented by a Chief Steward who shall be chosen or selected in a manner determined by the employees and the Union, and whose name shall be known to the Employer in writing until changed.

ARTICLE VII JURISDICTION

Employees not covered by the terms of this Agreement may temporarily perform work covered by this Agreement only for the purpose of instruction training, experimentation or in cases of emergency. This clause shall not limit the Employers right to hire substitute, temporary, summer and co-op students and to utilize donated services of agencies (i.e., CETA, DSS, MJC) as long as their service does not cause a full time regular employee to be laid off or reduced in time.

ARTICLE VIII
CONTRACTUAL WORK

The right of contracting or subcontracting is vested in the Employer. The right to contract or subcontract shall not be used for the purpose of undermining the Union, nor to discriminate against any of its members, nor shall the use of contracting or subcontracting result in the reduction of the present work force as is now in effect, nor in the event of the extension of service shall contracting or subcontracting be used to avoid the performance of work covered under this Agreement.

ARTICLE IX SENIORITY

(A) A newly hired employee shall be on a probationary status for thirty (30) calendar days, taken from and including the first (1st) day of employment. If at any time prior to the completion of the thirty (30) calendar day probationary period the employee's work performance is unsatisfactory, the employee may be dismissed by the Employer during this period without appeal by the Union. Probationary employees who are absent during the first thirty (30) calendar days of employment shall work additional days equal to the number of days absent and such employee shall not have completed his/her probationary period until these additional days have been worked.

(B) Upon satisfactory completion of the probationary period, the employee's seniority date shall be retroactive to date of hire.

1. Employees shall be laid off, recalled or demoted according to their seniority. A member scheduled to be laid off shall be able to bump a member of lesser seniority, with the same or lesser pay rate, within the bargaining unit, provided, the scheduled laid off member is qualified to perform the duties of the position bumped. A member scheduled for lay-off, who exercises their right to bump, shall continue to receive their regular rate of pay. - (f) The employee fails to report for work on the first (1st) working day after expiration of a leave of absence without a reasonable excuse acceptable to the Employer;
- (g) The employee fails to report for work following a layoff within three (3) working days after he is notified to do so - in person, by telephone, or by telegram, or by certified or registered mail sent to his address of record with the Employer. - (h) The employee is absent for three (3) days without notifying the Employer and/or without a good and sufficient reason.
- (i) The employee is on sick leave or absence for a period of three (3) years, or the length of his seniority, whichever is shorter.

(C) An agreed to seniority list shall be furnished to each employee covered by this Agreement on or about July 1st of each year. (D) In the event that the administration does not feel that it is desirable to place the highest seniority employee in the open position, an evaluation meeting shall be scheduled between the Union and the Employer in order to review the reasons and arrive at a decision. In the event that the parties are unable to satisfactorily resolve the dispute, the affected employee shall be notified in writing by the Employer as to the reason or reasons why he was not granted the job position, with the employee having the right to file a grievance under the grievance procedure if he feels that the reason or reasons that are given by the Employer are not proper.

During this thirty (30) calendar day period, but not therein after during the life of this Agreement, the Union may request, in writing, to the Employer to negotiate the classification and pay rate. The negotiated rate, if higher than the temporary rate, shall be applied to the date the employee first began working in the temporary classification, except as otherwise mutually agreed. In a case where the parties are unable to agree on the classification and/or rate of pay, the issue may be submitted to the grievance procedure. When a new classification has been assigned a permanent rate of pay, either as a result of the Union not requesting negotiations, or upon resolving the matter through the grievance procedure, the new classification shall be added to and become a part of Schedule A of the Agreement.

ARTICLE XII DISCIPLINE DISCHARGE

She shall be allowed to work until her physician would determine that she must interrupt her employment. When her physician so indicates, she shall at that time be granted a leave of absence. Normally an employee shall be expected to return to work three (3) months after delivery unless a doctor's statement is furnished to the Employer establishing the fact that she is not able to work.
