

ERTHWORX25

NATIONAL SCIENCE WEEK 2025
AUGUST 9-10TH

PROGRAM

Saturday, Aug 9th - The Corridor Project

9:30am – 10:00am | Registration | Attendee check-in: Anna Stranger

10:00am – 10:15am | Welcome - Aunty Esther Cutmore

10:15am – 10:30am | Overview | Event introduction: Orange Cowra Cabonne Science Hub
Convenor Phoebe Cowdery

10:30am – 12:00pm | Panel Discussion | Topics include: Wildlife disease, First Nation representation in public Museums, Plant pathology and mycology, regional renewable energy systems: Convened by Jackie Randles, panellists Dr Andrews Peters, Irene Ridgeway, Dr Jordan Bailey, Dylan Gower

12:00pm – 1:00pm | Lunch | Catering available through registration booking

1:30pm - 3:00pm | Panel Discussion | Topics include: Regenerative Farming Practices
panellists include: Sharon Cunial, Marion Mitchel, Catherine Bennett, Kate Dorrough
Convened by Jackie Randles

5:30pm - 7:00pm | Dinner | Catering available through registration booking

7:00pm-8:00pm - Open air session Wiradjuri night stories with Doug Sutherland [please wear warm clothes, we will have open fires located near talks]

Sunday, Aug 10th - The Corridor Project

10:00am – 4:00pm | Talks, Exhibition, Workshops | Retrospective showcase

10:00am – 3.00pm | Workshop (Continued) | Local Birdlife Collages & Tin-Type Photography – Genevieve Carroll & Bill Mosely

Workshop Overview: facilitators - Genevieve Carroll & Bill Mosely

Influenced by 1960's pop artist - Claes Oldenburg, Genevieve and Bill will facilitate an invigorating one day immersive workshop learning about endangered bird species of the Central West NSW. Participants will develop ideas through drawing, collage and wet collodion photography culminating with an outcome of collective performance and sculpture. Participant will learn to scale up drawings into large sculptures, creating an immersive environment that reflected natural and man made habitats ideated as abstract concepts through multiple viewpoints.

Saturday, Aug 16th - Micro Gallery Cowra

10:00am – 2:30pm | OPENING | ERTHWRX25 retrospective exhibition showcase | Micro Gallery Cowra

Sunday, Aug 17th - Micro Gallery Cowra

10:00am – 2:30pm | ERTHWRX25 retrospective exhibition showcase | Micro Gallery Cowra