

THE ONTARIO PROVINCIAL POLICE (OPP) INVITES YOU TO ATTEND THE

CANADIAN POLICE STAFFING SYMPOSIUM

AT OPP GENERAL HEADQUARTERS
777 Memorial Avenue, Orillia, Ontario

October 26-27, 2016

What is the symposium about?

- Exploring agency responses in the development of models for specialist and civilian personnel, Communication Centres, Forensic Identification Services, and other non-traditional environments (e.g., organized crime, cyber-crime).

Who should attend from Canadian police services?

- Police Leaders/Directors of business, finance, human resources, statisticians, police planners and others with detailed knowledge of deployment modelling.
- Academics and researchers in the field of public administration, criminology, etc.

How much does registration cost?

- Registration is free for delegates from police services and academic institutions.
- Attendees are responsible for their own travel, accommodations and other meal expenses. Light lunch and refreshments during morning/afternoon break provided.
- The total number of attendees at the symposium is capped at 80

How do I register?

- To register please email jennifer.batchelor@opp.ca and provide your full name, title, contact information, and the name of your police service. Deadline is Friday, September 16, 2016.
- Confirmation of registration will be sent to you via email. A detailed agenda will follow closer to the event date, once all presenters have been finalized.

Call for Presenters:

- The OPP is seeking innovative presentations on specialty police and civilian personnel allocation and deployment to be delivered for one hour at the symposium.
- Interested parties are encouraged to submit a brief abstract to suzanne.kettle@opp.ca for consideration no later than Wednesday, June 1, 2016.
- Business Consultant Dr. Alexander Weiss, co-author of "A Performance Based Approach to Police Staffing and Allocation", and facilitator at last year's Symposium, returns to lead participants through thought provoking presentations and discussion.
- Following the symposium, all papers will be assembled and shared electronically on the Public Safety Canada's Website under Index of Policing Initiatives.
