

Recognising the Outstanding Young Professionals of the Australian Cold Chain

This prestigious award, now in its 25th year, provides a unique opportunity for employers to acknowledge the contributions and talents of outstanding young professionals, our future leaders of the Australian Cold Chain.

The 2018 Frank Vale Award Winner will be announced at the RWTA 76th National Conference and Exhibition this September.

Rewards for Those Who Dare

Participation in the Frank Vale Award is a truly rewarding experience for all involved.

Previous Frank Vale Award candidates speak of the great sense of personal pride they experienced, upon learning that their employer had nominated them for this acclaimed Industry Award. They also speak of the personal and professional growth that accompanies the experience.

2017 Winner: Mathew Reiffel

"Being able to attend the RWTA/GCCA Summit in Sydney and compete with my peers for the Frank Vale Award was a fantastic experience and something that I will value throughout my career"

2016 Winner: Graeme Lee

"The experience was something I will always take with me on my Cold Chain journey and remember for years to come."

2015 Winner: Melissa Hunt

"The Frank Vale Award experience proved to be one of the greatest personal challenges and ultimately one of the most rewarding experiences of my life and career."

At the same time, employers have acknowledged that nominating a young colleague for this award, results in a number of worthwhile benefits flowing back to the candidate's company.
