

GREATER RACINE KENNEL CLUB Presents:

Denise Fenzi

March 11 & 12, 2017

Greater Racine Kennel Club 6320 6 Mile Rd. Racine WI 53402

March 11 (9am-5pm)

Building Drive and Motivation for All Sports

Designed to be applicable to participants from a range of doggy disciplines. Focusing on food, prey, hunt, and pack drives; participants will gain an understanding of their dogs' behavior and drives, and how to use this information to more effectively play with and motivate their canine companion. Working time is spent on developing play skills and learning games for increased focus and interaction with your dog.

12 working spots available. Unlimited audit (non-working) spots available.

March 12 (9am-12:30pm)

Engagement

The emphasis in this seminar will be helping dogs become comfortable in new spaces via acclimation, giving dogs the freedom to ask to work, and asking for increasingly more of our dogs (eye contact, personal play and work) before a classic reward shows up. The end goal is a dog that is extremely comfortable in a working space, and who drives the handler to create interaction and work.

6 working spots available. Unlimited audit (non-working) spots available.

March 12 (1:30pm-5pm)

Heeling Games

Heeling Games Using lecture, Powerpoint, and working time this seminar will emphasize games to build drive into heeling.

9 working spots available. Unlimited audit (non-working) spots available.

About Denise

A thirty-five year veteran of training, competing, and titling in schutzhund, obedience, tracking, agility, conformation, and herding who has earned many awards along the way.
