Happening Tonight: 2022 UB Table Talks
In-Person Learning Event

The 2022 UB Table Talks is a two-part, in-person, free course for architects in Buffalo and Western New York.

Wednesday, March 9 from 5-8 p.m.
403 Hayes Hall, UB South Campus
No registration is required
2 HSW Learning Units pending

Part 1: Mix and Mingle
Participants will have an opportunity to mingle, network, and converse with local architecture, engineering, and fabrication firms, construction companies, A & E support service providers, architecture students, and professional organizations. They are encouraged to discuss ongoing work and projects as well as opportunities for employment and partnerships.

Part 2: Panel Discussion

Participants will attend a panel discussion led by Michael Tunkey of CannonDesign with Denise Juron-Borgese of Ciminelli Real Estate Corporation and Stuart Green of Braymiller Market on the new 201 Ellicott mixed-use development project. Participants will learn about the design process of working within the Buffalo Green Code and navigating multiple community stakeholders to create affordable housing and a fresh food market in Buffalo’s Central Business District. Participants will also learn about the project’s guiding concepts: affordability, mobility, health and wellness, and vibrancy.

Happening Tomorrow

Jobsite Masonry Webinar - Earn 1 HSW/LU

APG University Online and Oldcastle APG are inviting you to attend a webinar on Jobsite Masonry Troubleshooting.

Thursday, March 10, 2022

1 to 2 p.m.
Installation and safety are essential in any industry and to everyone on the jobsite. Everybody from mason contractor crew to the general contractor supervision has eyes on the job. Understanding the methods used and challenges that occur on a jobsite during the construction of a building are critical to avoid a hazardous and unsightly looking project.

Jerry Painter of Jerry Painter Masonry Consulting will look at how proper and improper installation techniques contrast in the quality of finished product along with the safety and long-term health of a masonry building.

50+ Anniversary Celebration at UB

Join the University at Buffalo for an exciting opportunity to celebrate the life, work, and legacy of the UB School of Architecture and Planning.

April 6, 2022 from 1 p.m. to 8 p.m.
Hayes Hall, South Campus
Buffalo, NY 14214
AIA LUs Pending

The 50+ Anniversary Celebration calls together alumni, faculty, students, staff, friends and partners in the profession to consider the “plus” of our community - the people, ideas and values that drive the School of Architecture and Planning, then and now. Join us as we take stock of all we have achieved together over 50 years while looking forward with even greater ambition to project into new spheres of influence, engage more deeply with our communities, and build new coalitions and partnerships.

On April 6, 2022, we'll put our "plus" on full display with a full day of events celebrating the work of our faculty, students and alumni and the collective impact of our program over five decades. The day’s program opens with the 2022 Sydney Gross Alumni Symposium featuring alumni on the frontline of practice innovation. We'll also unveil the 50+ Alumni Exhibition, featuring 50 alumni with 50 images over 50 years. Drawing upon our cherished tradition of Atelier, "Open Studio" will cast open our doors to the community for a School-wide display of faculty and student work.

Registration Open: NYS Green Building Conference & Mass Timber Symposium

20th Annual NYS Green Building Conference & 3rd Annual Mass Timber Symposium
March 30 to April 28, 2022
Virtual

Join us for the 20th Annual New York State Green Building Conference! Our advisory council has again assembled a series of presentations by top green building researchers, educators, and practitioners. We are also excited to be hosting this conference in conjunction with the 3rd Annual Mass Timber Symposium! We have made the decision to again hold the conference as a series of webinars, due to the ongoing nature of the COVID-19 pandemic and prioritizing everyone’s health and safety. Last year’s 19th annual, second virtual conference attracted participants representing 6 countries, 12 states and provinces, and counties across NY State and we hope to have a great gathering of green building practitioners this year as well!
Professional Credits Available

Register today to earn 18 AIA LU/HSWs, 18 PDHs, and 3 CECs by attending each session. Some presentations are still under credit review. Join us for exciting keynote presentations, engaging sessions, and valuable networking opportunities.

Build Up Buffalo Event Planning

We’re in the planning stages for Build Up Buffalo 2022 and hope the event will enable us to see how the region has moved forward, what lessons have been learned and take a look at what the future holds. The 2022 event will be co-hosted by BOMA Buffalo, Construction Exchange, and AIA Buffalo/WNY and held in mid-to-late September 2022. Venue details are TBD.

Volunteers are needed to help research speakers for the event, help with registration prior to event and check-in day of event, research venue options. If you're interested in volunteering to help plan and staff a "Build Up Buffalo" event, please email Anne Dafchik at adafchik@CPLteam.com.
