This website is a resource for educational and informational purposes only and should not take the place of hiring healthcare professionals, including, without limitation, a physician, doctor, licensed dietician-nutritionist, massage therapist, psychologist, or other licensed or registered professional.

Visiting this website does not create a health coach-client relationship between you and the creator of The Soul Food Project, LLC/www.thesoulfoodprojectla.com. Accordingly, this blog does not provide health care, medical, or nutrition therapy services and will not diagnose, treat, or cure in any manner whatsoever any disease, condition, or other physical or mental ailment of the human body.

Customized health and wellness advice is not provided on this website (because that is pretty much impossible to do without knowing the delightful details of your specific situation). Instead, this website is an educational blog designed to highlight health and wellness opinions. If you have a specific health issue you need help with, you should seek a licensed health professional.
