

Tel: 1.877.248.6724

1105 East Broadway Road
Tempe, AZ 85282

Fax: 1.800.762.1622

Master of Arts - Required & Additional Textbooks

The Master of Arts program uses Encyclopaedia Britannica's Great Books of the Western World as the primary texts. The Great Books of the Western World Second Edition is a 60-volume set, with an additional text called The Great Conversation: A Reader's Guide to the Great Books of the Western World. The textbooks listed below will be used throughout your entire degree program, and they are the only textbooks you will be required to purchase. All texts may be purchased from a vendor of your choice. Please see page 2 for texts for students in the Master's Completion Program.

REQUIRED TEXTS FOR MASTER'S STUDENTS (not required for Master's Completion students)

Great Books of the Western World . Adler, Mortimer J., 2 nd Ed. Chicago: Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc., 1994. ISBN: 0-85229-531-6	$1100.00 + tax + shipping
The Great Conversation: A Reader's Guide to the Great Books of the Western World . 2 nd Ed. Chicago: Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc., 1990. ISBN: 0-85229-531-6	$25.00 + tax + shipping
How to Read a Book . Adler, Mortimer J., and Charles Van Doren New York: Simon & Schuster, 1972. ISBN: 0-671-21209-5	$13.00 + tax + shipping
Merriam-Webster's Collegiate Dictionary . Mish, Frederick C., 11 th Ed. Springfield, MA: Merriam-Webster, Inc., 2003. ISBN: 0-87779-808-7	$24.00 + tax + shipping
Shared Inquiry Handbook . Chicago, IL. The Great Books Foundation, 2014. SKU: ADU-SIH-DE (http://store.greatbooks.org)	Free Downloadable Product
The Will of the People: Readings in American Democracy . Chicago, IL. The Great Books Foundation, 2001. ISBN 978-1-880323-95-3. SKU: ADU-WP (http://store.greatbooks.org)	$12.95 + tax + shipping

REQUIRED TEXTS FOR MASTER'S COMPLETION PROGRAM

All students in the Master's Completion Program enrolling in the "How to Think About the Great Ideas: From the Great Books of Western Civilization" course are required to purchase the following:

How to Read a Book . Adler, Mortimer J., and Charles Van Doren New York: Simon & Schuster, 1972. ISBN: 0-671-21209-5	$13.00 + tax + shipping
How to Think About the Great Ideas: From the Great Books of Western Civilization . Adler, Mortimer J. Chicago: Open Court, 2000. ISBN 978-0812694123	$24.95 + tax + shipping
Merriam-Webster's Collegiate Dictionary . Mish, Frederick C., 11 th Ed. Springfield, MA: Merriam-Webster, Inc., 2003. ISBN: 0-87779-808-7	$24.00 + tax + shipping
Shared Inquiry Handbook . Chicago, IL. The Great Books Foundation, 2014. SKU: ADU-SIH-DE (http://store.greatbooks.org)	Free Downloadable Product
The Will of the People: Readings in American Democracy . Chicago, IL. The Great Books Foundation, 2001. ISBN 978-1-880323-95-3. SKU: ADU-WP (http://store.greatbooks.org)	$12.95 + tax + shipping

RECOMMENDED TEXTS FOR THE GREAT IDEA OF EDUCATION

For students studying the Great Idea of Education, the following texts are recommended:

Democracy and Education . Dewey, John, Hollywood, FL: Simon and Brown, 2011. ISBN: 978-1613820957	$15.00 + tax + shipping
Interest and Effort in Education . Dewey, John, Toronto, Ontario, CA: University of Toronto Press Publishing, 2011. ASIN: B004PYE05S	$11.00 + tax + shipping
The Montessori Method . Montessori, Maria, New York: Schocken Books, 1964. ISBN: 0-8052-0922-0	$21.00 + tax + shipping
The School and Society . Dewey, John, New York, NY, Cosimo Classics, 2008. ISBN: 978-1605200927	$8.00 + tax + shipping

ADDITIONAL TEXTS FOR THE MASTER OF ARTS PROGRAM

In lieu of the Great Books of the Western World, students may select readings from Great Books Foundation anthologies, The Annals of America, and other works by authors listed in the Bibliography of Additional Readings. Textbook pricing will vary based on the number of courses/credits the student is completing and the readings selected.

The Great Books Foundation anthologies are available for purchase online at <http://store.greatbooks.org/colleges-book-groups.html>. Prices vary by selection.

ADDITIONAL TEXTS FOR THE MASTER OF ARTS PROGRAM (continued)

The Annals of America and the Annals of American History are 22 volumes published by Encyclopaedia Britannica which contain primary documents written between 1497 and today. 1,500 authors are represented in the selected speeches, historical accounts, memoirs, poems, images, and multimedia.

The Annals of America, Adler, Mortimer J. and Charles Van Doren, $200.00 + tax
Chicago: Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc., 1976. ISBN-10: 046508673X. + shipping ISBN-13: 978-0465086733. Text available for purchase from a vendor of your choice. Students may also access The Annals of American History at the Willis Speight Harrison Athenaeum Online Library.

The Bibliography of Additional Readings may be found in Volume 2 of the Great Books of the Western World. Students may also access Volume 2 of the Great Books of the Western World at the Willis Speight Harrison Athenaeum Online Library. Selections may be available in many popular editions or collections. Prices vary by selection.