

Tel: 1.877.248.6724

1105 East Broadway Road
Tempe, AZ 85282

Fax: 1.800.762.1622

Doctor of Arts – Required Textbooks

The Doctor of Arts program uses Encyclopaedia Britannica's Great Books of the Western World as the primary texts. The Great Books of the Western World Second Edition is a 60-volume set, with an additional text called The Great Conversation: A Reader's Guide to the Great Books of the Western World. The textbooks listed below will be used throughout your entire degree program, and they are the only textbooks you will be required to purchase. All texts may be purchased from a vendor of your choice.

Great Books of the Western World . Adler, Mortimer J., 2 nd Ed. Chicago: Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc., 1994. ISBN: 0-85229-531-6	$1100.00 + tax + shipping
The Great Conversation: A Reader's Guide to the Great Books of the Western World . 2 nd Ed. Chicago: Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc., 1990. ISBN: 0-85229-531-6	$25.00 + tax + shipping
How to Read a Book . Adler, Mortimer J., and Charles Van Doren New York: Simon & Schuster, 1972. ISBN: 0-671-21209-5	$13.00 + tax + shipping
Merriam-Webster's Collegiate Dictionary . Mish, Frederick C., 11 th Ed. Springfield, MA: Merriam-Webster, Inc., 2003. ISBN: 0-87779-808-7	$24.00 + tax + shipping
Shared Inquiry Handbook . Chicago, IL. The Great Books Foundation, 2014. SKU: ADU-SIH-DE (http://store.greatbooks.org)	Free Downloadable Product
The Will of the People: Readings in American Democracy . Chicago, IL. The Great Books Foundation, 2001. ISBN 978-1-880323-95-3. SKU: ADU-WP (http://store.greatbooks.org)	$12.95 + tax + shipping