

CCTCP

Florida's Community Contribution Tax Credit Program

Offers tax credits to a wide variety of businesses who partner with approved 'sponsors'. The most effective program user, Habitat for Humanity helps you take YOUR tax dollars and puts them to work in OUR neighborhoods.

Corporations are able to 'sponsor' a Habitat home and receive tax incentives under the auspices of a unique program funded by the State of Florida.

Revitalizing our neighborhoods, stabilizing our community by increasing the ratio of homeowners to renters and creating tax revenue that has a positive impact on local business.

Why is Habitat Needed?

- 46,570 adults and 36,599 children are living in sub-standard conditions in this community.
- 1 in 4 households are cost-burdened, spending as much as 50% of their income on housing.
- An individual working at minimum wage must work 2.7 full-time jobs, to afford the average rent of $1024.

Families that have stable, affordable home, they can:

- Provide stability for their children
- Gain improved health, physical safety, and security
- Increase educational and job prospects
- Be engaged in their communities
