

Education

Continuing Education -B.S. Horticulture – Temple University, Ambler, PA 2009-2010
Specialized in soil science, design communications, and greenhouse management.

B.Sc. (hons) Herbal Medicine – Scottish School of Herbal Medicine, 2002-2006
Glasgow, UK / University of Wales, Cardiff, UK
4-year degree program in Herbal Medicine inclusive of over 500 clinical training hours and necessary coursework for application and acceptance to the National Institute of Medical Herbalists, UK.
Dissertation: Rosmarinus officinalis and Facilitation of the Grieving Process: A Study into the Effects of Grief on Physical Health and Implications for Herbal Medicine Therapeutics. Associated diplomas in Massage Therapy and Clinical Aromatherapy, ITEC.

B.A. Anthropology – University of Oregon, Eugene, OR 1997-2001
Major in Anthropology and minor in Spanish.
Focus on medical and linguistic anthropology.

Clinical Experience

Owner and Clinical Herbalist (MNIMH) Opening March 2017
Sovereignty Herbs, LLC, Athens, OH.
Centralization of clinical practice in Athens - Hocking County, OH. Opening location for consultations, dispensary, and workshop space. In addition to private practice, will be providing free or donation-based consultations for low income individuals alongside clinical training hours for students of herbal medicine looking to become clinical practitioners.

Clinical Herbalist (MNIMH) – DBA Erika G. Galentin, MNIMH, Buchtel, OH 2010-present
Ongoing part-time clinical practice including in person and distance consultations. Currently consult with 5 - 10 clients / week. Over 3000 clinical hours over this 6 year period. Maintenance of production gardens and dispensary, including cultivation and preparation of medicinal plant extracts and dried herbs for clinical use. Specializing in trans* health, female and reproductive health.

Clinical Aromatherapist (ITEC) – Lenzie Osteopathic Clinic, Glasgow, UK; 2006-present
Buchtel, OH
Therapeutic use of essentials oils in herbal and massage practice until 2009. No longer practicing massage therapy, but continue to educate clients about the use of essential oils in achieving and maintaining wellness goals, creating specialized external preparations, and occasional internal use.

Medical Herbalist (MNIMH) – Napiers the Herbalists, Glasgow, UK and 2007-2009
Lenzie Osteopathic Clinic, Glasgow, UK.
Full-time clinical practice including private practice and running of a low income free clinic in Glasgow, Scotland. Primary focus on female reproductive health, cardiovascular health, and working with refugees and asylum-seekers. Over 4000 clinical hours acquired.

Massage Therapist (ITEC) – Lenzie Osteopathic Clinic, Glasgow, UK. 2003-2009
Began practicing as a massage therapist while earning my BSc in herbal medicine. Continued to practice as a massager alongside clinical aromatherapy and herbal medicine until my return to the US. Not a licensed massage practitioner in US, or state of Ohio. Over 2000 body work clinical hours acquired.

Relevant Degrees, Diplomas

BSc (hons) Herbal Medicine, Scottish School of Herbal Medicine, Glasgow, UK / University of Wales, Cardiff, UK.

Diploma in Clinical Aromatherapy, Scottish School of Herbal Medicine, Glasgow, UK / International Therapy Examination Council, Glasgow, UK.

Professional Affiliations

Professional Member of the National Institute of Medical Herbalists (MNIMH), United Kingdom (membership no. 1579-06). Accepted March 31, 2007.

Phi Beta Kappa Honors Society, Member since 2002

Phi Alpha Xi National Academic Honors Society for Horticulture, American Society for Horticultural Science, Member since 2010

Teaching Experience

Faculty - Eclectic School of Herbal Medicine, Lowgap, NC. 2014-present
Currently teach the following subjects for Eclectic School of Herbal Medicine full-time program: Herb-Drug Interactions and Evaluating Scientific Research, Female Reproductive Health, Transgender Health, Goethean Science and Plant Study Methods, Reflective Practice. I am expected to teach more subjects for the 2017 program.

Guest Faculty - Ohio Herb Education Center, Gahanna, OH 2013-present
Have taught various workshops and classes at the introductory level, including herbal therapeutics and practical pharmacy for Gahanna Herb Group. Designed and taught 3-month introductory program, Fundamentals of Home Herbalism, from September through November 2016. This program will run again in 2017, with additional programming for more advanced studies.

Presenter – various presentations around the region 2008 - present
Representative of time since my return to United States from UK. Have provided a variety of lectures, herb walks, and panel discussions for various organizations and at various conferences. Including but not limited to: Royal College of Physicians and the Mutter Museum, Philadelphia, PA; Appalachia Ohio Alliance, OH. Midwest Native Plant Society, Columbus Natural History Society, Herb Society of America (TN), United Plant Savers, Stratford Ecological Center, LGBTQ Center at Ohio University, Sierra Club, Ohio Certified Naturalists Conference, Ohio Botanical Symposium, and Ohio State University.

Publications and Media

Journal of Medicinal Plant Conservation, Spring 2013
Quantitative Research at the United Plant Savers Botanical Sanctuary: Past, Present, and Future.

Herbal Thymes (in-house publication for members of NIMH), Winter 2014
Determination of the Determining Power: Ode to an Icon of 19th century Medical Reform

Journal of Medicinal Plant Conservation, Spring 2016
Framing a domestic market for American Ginseng: A Conversation

Herbal Academy (formerly Herbal Academy of New England), 2015 - present
Various blog posts (https://theherbalacademy.com/author/egalentin/?post_type=post) and articles for Herbarium (online subscription through Herbal Academy) including monographs.

The Medicine Gardener, 2015 - present
Personal blog: themedicinegardener.com/blog

Olzewski, M., Goldsmith, S., Guthrie, E.K., and Young, C.A. 2012. Use of sieved compost plus hydrogel for solid matrix priming of carrot seeds. Compost Science and Utilization. Vol 20 No 1: 5-10

Guthrie, E. 2008. Audio Tour: Benjamin Rush Medicinal Herb Garden, College of Physicians and the Mutter Museum, Philadelphia, PA.

No Bones About It, College of Physicians and the Mutter Museum.
YouTube video: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cDktAvsfa30>
Interview regarding the use of medicinal plants in both traditional and modern medicine as well as the role of exhibit gardens in education.

Most recent Continuing Professional Development Training

2015

- Clinically Relevant Herb-Drug Interactions, National Center for Complementary and Alternative Medicine, Online Continuing Education Series.
- The Art of Tongue Diagnosis, Christopher Hobbs, Recording from 1999 AHG Symposium, American Herbalists Guild
- Florida Herb Conference - Florida School of Holistic Living
- New England Women's Herbal Conference - NEWHC
- International American Ginseng Expo - North Carolina Natural Products Association, Asheville, NC

2016

- cGMPs - BioNetwork AHG Webinar, American Herbalists Guild
- Advanced Clinical Nutrition Webinar Series, Eclectic School of Herbal Medicine
- Systemic Inflammation Webinar Series, Eclectic School of Herbal Medicine
- Polycystic Ovarian Spectrum: A Well Woman's Approach - Gaia Herbs Professional Series
- Functional Blood Work Interpretation, Eclectic School of Herbal Medicine

Additional Career Experiences

Course Contributor, School of Aromatic Studies 2016- present
Course development and content writing and editing for Anatomy, Physiology, and Pathophysiology modules.

Course Development Director, Herbal Academy 2015-present
Duties include course/lesson planning and development, course writing, research and editing, aiding in course writing assignments and the direction of projects, review incoming material for accuracy and quality and determine whether it can be used in course material, initial course outlines, and an editorial calendar/schedule for organization and follow through.

Medicinal Plant Grower, Companion Plants, Athens, OH 2011-present
Creation of sales and marketing materials. Plant propagation. Integrated Pest Management. Maintenance of display and production beds including mowing, weeding, tilling, seed harvesting. Sales at farmer's markets, plant shows, and conferences.

Outreach Coordinator, United Plant Savers, Rutland, OH

2013-2014

Membership recruitment and retention; Development and donor relations; Financial management (accounting and budget); Creative development and Copywriting; Maintenance of website and outreach/promotion through social media. Education and outreach including public speaking, teaching, and running tours and workshops; Development of educational programming; Event organization and coordination inclusive of creating and maintaining event budget; Communications and Public Relations; General Administration; Staff management.

Clinic Supervisor, Anthem Institute Massage Therapy Program, Springfield, PA

2009-2010

Supervision of students through the Clinical Externship. Teaching, conducting lectures. Management and oversight of student practitioners and daily operations of training clinic. Marketing, advertising and generating clientele through community outreach.